ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

In genealogical research it is impossible to know where to begin to express your appreciation for all the information that has been so generously offered. Without the co-operation of literally hundreds of people, including, among others, staffs of libraries, public record offices, churches and genealogical organizations, a book such as this would never be possible. Throughout the book the compiler has tried to acknowledge the contributions of those who have given so much of their time and effort toward a successful conclusion of this project. He will not attempt to name all those who have assisted by furnishing data on their immediate families, that would take a book in itself, instead he wishes to list here those who have truly expended their time and finances to further the research on our family tree. Before listing those who have "gone beyond the call", the compiler would like to express his deep appreciation to his wife. Without her constant encouragement and understanding this book would never have been completed, and to those listed below, many thanks, for without you the book would never have been started...

O Lord, you have been our refuge through all generations.
Before the mountains were begotten and the earth and the world were brought forth, from everlasting to everlasting you are God.
You turn man back to dust, saying,
"Return, O children of men."

FOREWORD

The publishing of this book culminates almost fifty years of research and the collecting of information from all parts of the United States on this family line by this compiler. This book contains data on our progenitor Francis HOGWOOD who died in Virginia between 1676 and 1678, an Englishman of Scottish descent who arrived in this country in or about 1650, and his wife Elizabeth CREED, and many of their descendants up to the present day. Many of these descendants have spelled the name in various ways over the generations, i.e. HAGOOD, HAYGOOD, HAGWOOD, HAGUEWOOD, HAIGWOOD, HEGWOOD, HAIGHWOOD and includes other spellings not as commonly found.

The compiler has been very diligent in copying from official records the spellings of the name as recorded and used by each generation and family. In many instances the name will be found spelled several different ways by the same individual and even in the same document. Through this book the descendants will, in most cases, be able to determine in what generation their name was actually changed to the one their family may be using today.

Although, on rare occasions, the sur-name HAYWOOD or HEYWOOD may have been used as forms of spelling for some members of the above HOGWOOD line this compiler has not, to date, found one instance of the HAYWOOD line being closely connected to the HOGWOOD family tree. This fact may change in the future as more family history is researched and additional family branches are identified, but at this time it is generally agreed that these are two distinctly different lines in the United States. To connect the two lines it would probably require a thorough research in England or possibly back to the ancient days of Scotland.

The compiler has included the HEYWOOD/HAYWOOD Family Line in Section "I" of this book. The line dates back to Peter HEYWOOD born 1164, the progenitor of John HAYWOOD born about 1684 in Barbados, West Indies and died 1758 in North Carolina, and thence, continuing with many of John's descendants down to the present day.

The compiler has endeavored to record all information furnished him over the years by the many interested members of the HOGWOOD and HAYWOOD lines as accurately as possible. This is not to say that there were no errors in the data received; and, as in the case of any family history that has ever been, or ever will be, written - it is far from being complete. The compiler has put forth an earnest effort to make this the most complete book ever written on this family line. It is his desire that the book will assist others in further research of the family and perhaps help to extend the line into the past and the future generations. There are even now, and more in time to come, many additional branches of our family tree that should be included in the proud heritage set forth in the New World by our founding forebearers. It is now the duty and responsibility of the present generation and that of our descendants, yet to be born, to carry on the revered past events and traditions of this family line, never allowing them to be lost among the pages of history.

This is the beginning.

USING THIS BOOK TO DETERMINE YOUR DIRECT ANCESTORS

On the last page of this book is a blank genealogical form that you may desire to complete with your own direct ancestors or those of your children or grandchildren. This will serve as an easy reference in the future when you are trying to locate a particular generation in your line. It will become an invaluable tool for a descendant of yours who, many decades from now, may decide to continue the genealogical research on his/her family tree.

To trace a person's ancestry in any Section of this book, it will be better to work backwards. For example: FIRST: place the name of the most recent person you wish to trace on the "First Generation" line of the chart, along with his/her identifying number and page number. SECOND: the number in parentheses following the person's name is the identifying number of his parent, turn backwards in the book until the parent's name is located, the name should then be listed, along with his/her identifying and page numbers on the second (PARENTS) line of the genealogical chart. THIRD: continue this procedure until you reach the number "1" person in the section you are working from...that person will be the "progenitor" or forefather/ancestor in your direct line.

The compiler has included a completed genealogical chart on his first grandchild on a following page as an example that you may follow. Familiarize yourself with this chart before proceeding to complete your own genealogical sheet, please remember to be very accurate and neat in filling in the form...it may be around for many generations to come.

Should the more recent generations not be listed in this book, please do not be concerned with giving them an identifying number, place their names on the first lines of the chart (other information may also be entered next to their names) and then from the book begin the process on the earlier ancestors as outlined above. For instance, let us pretend that the compiler's second grandchild and her parents are not listed in the book, her chart would appear as follows:

FIRST GENERATION:	Page ____ # ____	Jennifer Anna Haigwood CARTWRIGHT
		b. 24 MAR 1984 in Atlanta, Ga.
PARENTS:	Page ____ # ____	Jeane Denise HAIGWOOD b.30 JAN 1956
		m. David Lawrence CARTWRIGHT 6/17/78
GRANDPARENTS:	Page 306 # 486	John Elmer HAIGWOOD

		m. Odessa Matilda COOPER
2nd G GRANDPARENTS:	Page 156 # 149	James Washington HAIGWOOD (Ga.)
		m. Hattie Gordia JENNINGS

This chart would then continue on through the earlier ancestors as described until Jennifer's progenitor had been reached.

Please Note: At the end of this book, next to the blank "Genealogical Chart", the compiler has included a "Relationship Chart". This is a useful tool in determining the relationship of one person with another. Follow the directions as given on the chart. It is recommended that working copies be made of the chart, for there will be many relationships that you will want to identify in the future. You may also need to extend the chart to include several additional generations.

HOGWOOD • HAWKWOOD • HAGUEWOOD
HAYGOOD

Two Coat-of-Arms being used by related branches of the HAGOOD LINE.

THE ANCIENT CLAN OF HAIGHWOOD

The information on the following pages pertaining to the ancient family of HAIGH-WOLD/ HAIGHWOOD/ HAWKWOOD was furnished this compiler in 1977 by the late Margaret (HAIGWOOD) CHARSHA of New Jersey. The author was unknown to Mrs. CHARSHA, she stated that it had come with the Coat of Arms from Ireland via Canada. The Coat of Arms or Crest is the same as one that was supposedly in the possession of the late William Leroy HAIGWOOD of California, who, during his lifetime had spent many years researching the history of this family. The informational sheets supplied with the Coat of Arms are quoted verbatum herein:

"The HAIGHWOOD family is of Teutonic origin. Although originating in northern Europe, the family has dwelled in Scotland and Great Britian, along the Anglo-Scottish border, for many centuries. The original forms of the name, which has gone through many changes, is HAIGH-WOLD, meaning 'high wood' or 'woody hills'. This refers to the southern Highlands. From HAIGH-WOLD, the name became HAIGHWOOD, having the same meaning. It was in this form the name was used at the time of granting of the arms in 1185. There were few instances of the name being spelled HAIGWOOD until after the family had migrated to the new world; however in some ancient records, we find the name alternately spelled HAIGHWOOD and HAIGWOOD even when appertaining to brother or father and son.

The branch of the HAIGHWOOD family which resides in Scotland belongs to the Clan Chattan (Clan of the Little Cat), the largest and most powerful of the associated clans.

Heraldic Blazon of the Coat of Arms of the Family of Haighwood

Escutcheon: argent (silver), three torteaux (round red balls). Indent (in a diagonal line from the upper right to the lower left) between two coteisses (narrow stripes) all within a bordeur (border) gules (red).

Explanation of the Coat of Arms of the House of Haighwood

In heraldry, red is the color of bravery, warfare, a love of conquest, and a war-like disposition; silver represents purity, truth, eloquence and virginity. The torteaux, or red balls, is called a subordinary. It comes from the red balls of woolen or silk that hung from the knight's sash. These were usually three in number, signifying the Holy Trinity. The coteisse is a diminutive of the blend of diagonal stripe from the upper right to the lower left corner of the shield. This comes from the soldier's sword belt. The blend is called an honorable ordinary, which simply means one of the honorable charges most ordinarily used.

The stump of the tree in the crest signifies death in battle (being "cut down"), while the falcon represents a live and brave warrior. This signifies even though one of the fighting men of the family was killed in battle, his living, brave and war-like sons would take his place: life arising in death.

There is no motto on the HAIGHWOOD achievement of arms. This is due to its great antiquity. Although there is a belief in the minds of some that every coat of arms and every family rating arms has a motto, this is far from the truth. A short perusal of Burkes Encyclopedia of Heraldry and General Armory, which blazons every arms ever granted in Great Britain, would show that fully eighty per cent of arms bear no accompanying motto. As a matter of fact, a motto was a war or rallying cry and did not come into existence until the thirteenth century. The HAIGHWOOD Arms long ante-dates this period. The mantling or lambrequin, the decorating scroll work surrounding the shield, has no particular shade. This is left up to the discretion of the artist. The only rule for the mantling is that it must be in the livery colors of the shield, i.e. the first two mentioned in the blazon. In the case of the HAIGHWOOD arms these colors are silver and red. The mantling takes its name and symbolism from a cloak which the knights in armour wore suspended from his helmet. Its purpose was to shield him from the sun, encased as he was in a metal suit. The mantle protected also, his armour from rain, snow and sleet. In fighting, his mantle would be cut and slashed, hence, the torn appearance. The knight was very proud of these slashes, as they told of his many conflicts. He would have them patched in other colors, usually gold insets". unquote. (Author unknown).

In many instances different branches of the same family were granted additional arms, such as the one granted to the HEYWOOD/HAYWOOD family in 1838, over six hundred and fifty years after the granting of the HAIGHWOOD Coat of Arms. It is interesting to compare the simularity of the two arms.

BLAZON OF ARMS - HAIGHWOOD

CLAN CHATTAN

It has previously been mentioned that the HAIGHWOOD families are members of the Clan Chattan, an association of clans. As members of this clan the Coat of Arms of Clan Chattan was also available and authorized for the HAIGHWOOD Clans, as well as the tartan of red, purple, black, yellow, green and blue plaid.

Origin of Name: Clan of the Cats.

Badge: Red Whortleberry.

War Cry: Clan Chattan.

Clansmen's Crest: A Cat Salient.

Motto: Touch not the cat bot a glove. (Touch not the cat without a glove).

Gaelic Name: Clann Gillacatan.

From The Clans and Tartans of Scotland pp. 66-67 by Robert BAIN 1938, quote: "Clan Chattan, or the 'Clan of the Cats', was a very ancient confederation of clans. Originally composed of the Mackintoshes, Davidsons, Macphersons, Mac-Gillivrays and MacBeans, it was later strengthened by the addition of other clans such as the FARQUHARSONS (and the HAIGHWOODS).

Gillechattan Mor is claimed to have been the first authentic chief, and from him descended Eva, only child of Dougall Dall, 6th chief. Eva married in 1291, Angus, 6th Laird of Mackintosh, who thus became Captain of Clan Chattan.

The chiefs of Clan Macpherson claimed the chiefship of Clan Chattan on the grounds that they were descended from Muireach, the Parson of Kingussie (1173), who was also Chief of Clan Chattan. Muireach's eldest son was Gillechattan Patrick, grandfather of Eva, and his second son, Ewan Ban, was the progenitor of Clan Macpherson. It is now accepted however that the chiefship of Clan Chattan was a heritable honour and that the chiefship was conferred on Eva by her father.

For 200 years the two clans feuded over the chiefship and in 1672 Cluny Macpherson matriculated arms as "the laird of Cluny and the only true representer of the ancient and honourable family of Clan Chattan". The chief of Macintosh protested and the arms given to Cluny were withdrawn. He was given new arms as a cadet of Clan Chattan.

When the 28th chief of Mackintosh died, without male issue, he nominated his successor as Chief of Clan Mackintosh but not of Clan Chattan. His death separated the chiefship of both clans and, in 1492, Duncan Alexander MacKintosh, descendant of the Daviot branch of the Mackintoshes, was granted the arms of Clan Chattan by the Lord Lyon in the name of MacKintosh of MacKintosh-Torcastle." Unquote.

A NEW BEGINNING IN THE NEW COLONY OF VIRGINIA - 1650

PARISH OF MARTINS BRANDON, CHARLES CITY COUNTY, VIRGINIA - 1650

Martin's Brandon (meaning "plantation" or "settlement") was named for its owner and settler, Capt. John Martin, son of a London goldsmith, Sir Richard Martin, Master of the Royal Mint. John's brother-in-law was Sir Julius Caesar, Master of the Rolls - of the Privy Council, who in 1624 when Virginia became a Royal Colony, was appointed by King James to a Royal Commission to "settle a government" in Virginia. Captain Martin had arrived with Capt. John Smith in 1607 and was one of the seven men appointed by the London Company to serve as resident Council of the colony. Martin died after 1624 in Martin's Brandon, a few years after he was removed as the last original member of the Council.

Charles City County was established in 1634 from part of Original Shire. The original location of Martin's Brandon is now located in Prince George County, which was established in 1702/3 from part of Charles City County. To reach the area: take State Highway #10 southeast from Hopewell, Va. to the small village of Burrowsville (no post office), a short distance south, take County Road #611 to the historical area on the James River known today only as "BRANDON".

OUR PROGENITOR

"Forefather/ancestor in direct line"

FRANCIS HAWKWOOD/HAWGOOD/HOGWOOD

FRANCIS was probably the first of our surname ancestors (his wife's family may have arrived earlier) to reach the shores of America from England and settle in the new colony of Virginia which had seen the arrival, only ca. 43 years before, of Captain John SMITH in May 1607 with the first three boatloads of English immigrants settling on the northeast shore of the James River. The first known record of our progenitor is found on 12 AUG 1650 in Patent Book Vol. 2, p. 248 listing him as Fra. HAWKWOOD at which time he received a patent for ca. 50 acres of land in Charles City County, Va., along with forty-nine other settlers. The land was located "near the head of Powells Creek adj. to the land called Weynoake old Town" (Cavaliers and Pioneers Vol. 1, p. 198 by Nell Marion NUGENT, 1963).

On 14 OCT 1660 "ffrancis the son of ffrancis HOGWOOD" was baptised in the Parish of Martins Brandon, Charles City County, Va. The record may be located in the registers of the Episcopal Church on file at the Virginia State Library, Richmond. It was also published in the William and Mary College Quarterly Series 1, Vol. 4, p. 168.

On 30 JUL 1670 Fra. HAWGOOD received a second patent for ca. 50 acres on the South side of the James River in Charles City County, included with nine other persons (Cavaliers and Pioneers Vol. II, p. 74 by NUGENT).

Another early settler in America bearing a similar name was George HEYWOOD of Concord, Mass. who died 14 APR 1671 (A General Register of First Settlers of New England by FARMER). HEYWOOD is likely the English spelling of the name, while HAWKWOOD would be more closely related to our original family ties in Scotland, both families may have migrated to England, with the HEYWOOD/HAYWOOD line having arrived there several generations prior to that of the HAWKWOOD/HOGWOOD. Perhaps a research conducted of several early generations of the two families before their removal to England would disclose their progenitor as being one and the same, while very likely being located among the clans in "auld Scotland". (To follow the genealogical line of one HEYWOOD/HAYWOOD family turn to Section "I" on p. 417.)

Perhaps in the future one of our descendants, or even one of us, will discover the exact date of Francis HOGWOOD's arrival in the Colonies and will continue the search for our kindred in England and on into the ancient history of Scotland, until that day, we the descendants of or, however the present generation may choose to spell the sur-name, can take great pride in the knowledge of our very early American heritage and the truly important role that our brave and adventurous ancestors have played in establishing and protecting this great Republic for our descendants yet to be born.

1. FRANCIS HOGWOOD (as spelled in his last will)

An Englishman, of Scottish descent, probably born between 1620-1630. His birthplace is not yet known, but may have been in the County Gloucester, England, probable birthplace of his wife. He died between 3 JAN 1676 (date of will) and 18 MAY 1677 (date of probate) in Surry County, Va. (Surry being established in 1652 from James City County.) He died one hundred years before the American Revolution in which several of his great, great grandsons fought. Francis was one of the earliest settlers in the new world, perhaps sailing from the seaport of Bristol or London, at least by early 1650 to settle in the colony of Virginia on the James River. As mentioned previously, he was located in Charles City Co. on 12 AUG 1650, see land patent, and again on 14 OCT 1660 when a son Francis HOGWOOD (Jr.) was baptised. Francis HOGWOOD (Sr.) married (in England or after his arrival in America?) Elizabeth CREED, daughter of Ralph (Raiph,Raphael) and Grace CREED. Ralph was a carpenter, originally from Shirehampton, County of Gloucester, England. Elizabeth was the granddaughter of Edward and Elinor CREED of the same county, and the great granddaughter of Raphell, a husbandman (farmer), and Agnes CREED of the Parish of Westbury upon Trim, County of Gloucester, England.

The following information on the CREED family is taken from the Virginia Historical Magazine Vol. 56 pp.73-76, 1948:

"Raphell CREED (the great grandfather of Elizabeth Creed HOGWOOD), of the Parish of Westbury upon Trim, in the county of Gloucester, husbandman; will dated 28 October 1630; codicil dated 18 February 1632 (1632/3); proved 18 March 1632 (1632/3) at Bristol.

"Ralph, Raiph, or Raphael CREED was an early settler of Surry County, Virginia. He is first mentioned in 1655 as ship's carpenter of the 'York' (Lower Norfolk Country Antiquary, IV, 82). His first appearance in the records of Surry County was on May 3, 1658, when Joseph WHITMELL mortgaged his crop to him (Surry County record, Wills & Deed 1645-71, p. 117). On May 30, 1659, he deeded to Thomas CHIVERS 1,100 odd acres of land, lately in the possession of Richard HILL, which had been sold CREED by Col. George JORDAN (id., p. 151). As Raiph CREED, carpenter, he was deeded 150 acres by Thomas FLOOD August 27, 1661 (id., p. 172), and at his death, this property passed to his son, William CREED, who dying without issue, it descended to a daughter, Mary CREED, 'according to the will of her father, Raphael CREED,' (unfortunately, the will of Raphael CREED, of Surry County, does not appear in the remaining Surry County records) and was sold by Mary and her husband, David ANDREWS, Jr., to William EDWARDS, January 6, 1690/91 (Surry County records, Wills and Deeds 1687-94, p. 195). Thomas WALL made a mortgage of his property to Ralph CREED February 7, 1663/4, died soon afterwards, and his son, Thomas WALL, Jr., bound himself apprentice to Ralph CREED, carpenter, September 6, 1664 (Surry County records, Wills & Deeds 1645-71, p. 230 and 244). Ralph CREED is shown as a resident of Southwark Parish, Surry County, with two tithables in his family, on June 10, 1668 (id., p. 316), and died between that time and September 2, 1668, when there is a record of a list of 'Debts demanded from the estate of Raphaell CREED' (id., p. 311). A sale of goods from the estate made by the widow CREED, October 15, 1668, records sales amounting to 7,781 lbs. of tobacco, and includes among other items 'the printed Laws of Virginia & a good Sermon book,' and '1 salmebook (Psalm book)' (id., p. 317). The widow, Grace CREED, married second, Edward WARREN, who had previously been married to Mrs. Aylce (CROXON)Carter PARKE, widow successively of William CARTER and Capt. Giles PARKE --- Mrs. Grace Creed WARREN died probably early in 1676, as her son-in-law, Francis HOGWOOD, acknowledged receipt of the estate of Mary CREED from Edward WARREN March 29, 1676 (Surry County records, Wills & Deeds 1671-84, p. 115). Edward WARREN's will, dated April 15, 1676, and probated May 2, 1676, states that he wishes to be buried 'by my loving wife Grace CREEDE,' and leaves his property to his son-in-law (step-son), William CREEDE and his four daughters-in-law (step-daughters), mentioning by name Johney (Joane?) and Mary CREEDE (id., p. 114). The five children of Raphael and Grace CREED were: (1) Elizabeth CREED, who married Francis HOGWOOD and had issue, Richard, William, George and (daughter) Frances HOGWOOD (please note that these names are from the will of Francis HOGWOOD and their son, Francis (Jr.), who was baptised on 14 OCT 1660 was not named in the will indicating that he must have died young); (2) Maudlin CREED who married first, Marmaduke BECKWITH (d. 1670); second, Edward OLIVER (1649-1676), and third 1676, John WARREN, and had at least two BECKWITH daughters, Elizabeth and Grace; (3) Johney (Joane?) CREED married probably Noah BAREFOOT; (4) Mary CREED married first, 1678, John FLOOD; second, 1679, David ANDREWS, Jr.; and (5) William CREED, d.s.p. 1688, leaving his property to David ANDREWS and Noah BAREFOOT. A fuller discussion of Ralph CREED's descendants will appear in a later issue of this magazine.

It appears highly probable that the Raphael CREED (named as a son in the will of Edward CREED, of Shirehampton, Glocester, and as grandson in the will of Raphell CREED, of the parish of Westbury, upon Trim, Gloucester) is identical with Ralph or Raphael CREED of Surry County. Joan CREED, mentioned in the wills as wife of Peter REDMAN, may offer the clue to the English origin of another early Virginia settler, namely, John REDMAN of Westmoreland County (1623-1673), whose first son was named Peter. - B.C. HOLTZCLAW." unquote.

Elizabeth (CREED) HOGWOOD apparently preceeded her husband Francis in death since he said in his will that he wanted to be "decently Interred by my wife". Elizabeth is shown on a receipt from Edward OLIVER made on 7 NOV 1675 as follows: "for one browne heifer of two years, recd. of Elizabeth the wife of ffrancis HOGWOOD...being given by the said Elizabeth & her sd. Husband unto Elizabeth BECKWITH orphan she being Godmother & Aunte unto sd. orphan". (Surry Co., Va. Record Bk. 1671-1684, p. 89).

(1) From Bk. I, 1652-1672 Surry County Records, Surry Co., Va. quote: "Page 230. Feb. 1663. (3) Again the same Bk. I: quote: "Page 243. 4 July 1664. The corpse of an unknown young man was found at the Landinge of Mr. Benjamin HARRISON, and it was necessary to bury him immediately. Jury saw the body. Foreman, Mr. Henry BRIGS. " unquote. (Eleven other members of the jury were named and at the end of the list was "Frentris HOGWOOD, constable". This was probably meant to be Francis HOGWOOD).

(4) Continuing in Bk. I: quote: "Page 244. 6 Sept. 1664. Thos. WALL, the sonne of Thos. WALL, of Southwarke Parish, Surry County, hath putt himself to Ralph CREED, carpenter, for five years. Wit.: Francis HOGWOOD, Thos. CARY." unquote.

(1 i-a)

Francis HOGWOOD's Last Will is recorded in Surry Co., Va. Record Book 1671-84, p. 122 and is as follows: "In the Name of God Amen I Francis HOGWOOD of Surry County being very sick but praised be God in pfect Sence & Minde, Doe make this my last Will & Testamt: first I recomend my Soule to God that gave it, trusting in the meritts of Jesus Christ for my salvation, & I dispose of my worldly Estate as followeth first I doe Will and Ord: that all my Cattle bedding & my Mare & my pewter be equally divided amongst my fower Children (Vizt) Richard William George & my Daughter Frances, & yt all the rest of my goods & my hoggs shall be apprazzed & Equally divided...only...that Richard having a Gun already William & George have the other two. Witness: George JORDAN, Thomas fflood".

Children Include:

i. Richard HOGWOOD the eldest died in 1678.

ii. William HOGWOOD probably came of age before 22 JUL 1683, for there is a receipt signed by Wm. (his mark MH) HOWGOOD for his share of his father's estate, received from John WARREN. (Surry Co., Va. Record Bk. 1671-84, p. 346). In the Prince George Co., Va. Record Bk. of 1713-28, p. 62 dtd. 9 JUN 1715 the Last Will of Susanna BARTON was witnessed by a William HOGWOOD, he had signed it with his mark "X". Supposedly he had a nephew of the same name, who wrote his own name. Susanna BARTON's Last Will was also witnessed by a Thomas DANIEL...five years later, this could be the same Thomas DANIELL who made his Last Will in Surry Co., Va. on 29 FEB 1720 (Bk. 7, p. 281) and reading: "I give unto Joan HOGWOOD twenty schillings. I Give unto Willm. HOGWOOD my new suit of Cloaths. I give unto Willm. DUELL all my old weareing Cloaths. I give unto Eliza. HOGWOOD twenty Shillings. I give unto George HOGWOOD my black Suit of Cloaths with all the rest of my Estate after all my Debts are paid to bury me". unquote. Joan was the wife of William HAYGOOD and perhaps the daughter of Thomas DANIEL, (Virginia Historical Genealogies p. 196 by John Bennett BODDIE). An inventory of her estate was returned in Prince George Co. on 7 MAY 1720 by Robert RIVERS, Adm. (p. 406).

2. iii. George HOGWOOD (Sr.)

iv. Frances HOGWOOD no information on this daughter, except for what was stated in her father's Last Will.

v. Francis HOGWOOD (Jr.) a son baptised on 14 OCT 1660 in the Parish of Martins Brandon, Charles City Co., Va. He probably died young since he was not mentioned in his father's will.

b. Surry Co., Virginia. Married Ann. Son of Francis HOGWOOD and Elizabeth CREED. George was still a minor at the time of his father's Last Will (dtd. JAN 1676) and probably quite young at the time, as careful directions are given for his care. He supposedly lived all his life in Surry Co., Va., but with no proof of having owned land in that county. On 13 OCT 1727 (shortly before his death, or at least his Last Will) George HAGOOD of Surry Co. finally received a land grant in Brunswick County (Patent Bk.13, p.179). This grant consisted of 345 acres on the north side of Maherin River at the Sappony Indian Line and on the east side of Totero Creek. (Notice the name change to HAGOOD).

Two months after receiving the Land Grant he made his Last Will dated 20 DEC 1727 in Surry Co., Va. The Will is as follows: "In the name of God Amen, I George HAGOOD of Surry County being Sick and Weak but in Perfest Sense and Memory do make and Ordain this my last Will and Testament first Whensoever it shall plese God to take me out of this Mortall Life, I Give and bequeath my Soul to God my Creator and my body to the Earth from Whence it Came in Certain hope of Resurrection and for What Worldly Estate it hath Plesed God to Possess me With, it is my desier that it be deposed of as followeth after my Just depts be paid. Impres. I give and bequeath unto my Loveing Wife Ann HAGOOD one Chest & Lock & key & the feather bed and furniture as she lyes on One Spening Weell and Cards & the Wooll and Cotten that is in the house. Itm. I give unto my tow Sons Francis & Richard HAGOOD Each of them a Gon. And the Rest of my Estate to be Equilly divided amongst my Children after my Depts be paid and Lassly I do apoint my tow sons George and John HAGOOD to be my Exctrs. Given under my hand and Seall this 20th day of Decbr. 1727.

In regards to the above Last Will of George HAGOOD, Mr. Jonathan B. BUTCHER, Professional Researcher, who did much of the research on the HAGOOD Family in Virginia, wrote the following and is quoted verbatum herein: "To see why this will is misleading it is necessary to understand somewhat of the laws and customs of the time. Virginia law in the colonial era very strongly favored the customs of primogeniture, by which all lands belonging to a deceased person passed intact to the eldest son, unless otherwise bequeathed. Because it was thus presumed that the eldest son would inherit the land we sometimes find Wills where neither this son or the land is mentioned. This is apparently the case here, for George did not bequeath his land in the will, but later we find that this land was inherited by William HAGOOD. Thus the purpose of the will was merely to bequeath the personal property, particularly the testator's guns. We may then identify George's sons as follows..." unquote.

At a Court held for Brunswick County the Seventh day of February 1733/4 —

Willi[illegible] Hagood came into Court & Acknowledged this Deed to John Hagood which the motion of the Said John Hagood is admitted to Record Test J. Hill Cl Cur.

INDENTURE between WILLIAM HAGOOD #3 and his brother, JOHN HAGOOD.

Dated 6 FEB 1733 - Brunswick County, Virginia.

parentage is implied by a deed of lease and release dated 6-7 FEB 1733 (this was a standard, although somewhat confusing way of transferring title). The Lease segment reads as follows: (Brunswick Co., Va. Record Bk.1, p.95): "This Indenture made this Sixth day of ffebruary in the year of our Lord God one thousand seven hundred & thirty three between Wm. HAGOOD of Brunswick County...and John HAGOOD of the said County... Witnesseth that the sd. Wm. HAGOOD for...the sum of five Shillings Sterling...hath...sold...unto sd. John HAGOOD...percel or tract of Land Containing three hundred & forty five acres...on the North side of Meherrin River...Beginning at a Red & White Oake Near Totero Creek... the sd. percell of Land being Granted to Geo: HAGOOD by patten dated the (blank)...to hold...during the term of one year...(signed) William HAGOOD Witness: M.C. YOUNG, James VAUGHAN." unquote. No additional payment was noted in the release deed, therefore the whole transfer was basically a gift.

On 13 OCT 1727, the same date as his father's Land Grant, William received a patent of 330 acres on the north side of Maherin River and on the west side of Briery Creek in Brunswick Co., Va. (Patent Bk.13, p.188). He sold 130 acres of this patent, "beloe my plantation" for 5 shillings to George HAGOOD (Jr.) (his brother) on 1 APR 1736 (Bk.1, p.263). Thus William sold lands to two of his brothers at nominal fees.

It is possible that William served briefly in some county office in Brunswick Co. We find that the inventory of the estate of James VAUGHN was sworn to "before Mr. William HAGOOD" on 5 DEC 1735 (Record Bk.1, p.250) but perhaps this is intended to mean that William was the person who made the inventory.

On 20 JUL 1738 William received a second grant of 250 acres on the north side of Briery Creek (Patent Bk.18, p.35). This tract, although not formally patented, and the remaining 200 acres of the earlier patent are referred to in a mortgage deed William made to Theophilus FIELD for 45 pounds on 1 JUN 1738 (Bk.1, p.365) witnessed by Drury STITH, Moses DUNKLEY and Clem READ. Mr. FIELD recorded a release from this mortgage on 3 NOV 1743 (Bk.2, p.402). This land may have been sold by William to Thomas TWITTY in 1743, with his wife, Mary, supposedly co-signing the deed.

On 12 JAN 1746 William received a grant of 404 acres on the south side of Stith's Creek (Patent Bk.28, p.53). This grant was made in Brunswick Co., but the land soon fell into Lunenburg County, which explains why William does not appear on the surviving Brunswick tithe list of 1748, William was tithed in Lunenburg Co., Va. in 1748, 1749, 1751 and 1752.

William sold the above grant in 1748. (Lunenburg Co. Deed Bk.2, p.371). "This indenture made the Second Day of May in the Year of Our Lord God one thousand seven hundred and forty eight Between William HAGOOD of the County of Lunenburgh...Witnesseth that the said William HAGOOD for... Forty seven pounds ten shillings...hath...sold...unto the said James WILLIAMS...a Certain Tract or Parcel of Land containing Four hundred and four Acres lying...on the south side of Stiths Creek...which was Granted to the said William HAGWOOD by Letters Pattent dated...the Twelfth day of January One thousand seven hundred and forty six...(signed) Wm. HAGOOD Witness: S. DELONY. Acknowledged 2 MAY 1748."

William does not again appear in the Lunenburg Co., Va. deeds. The reference in the deed from James WILLIAMS to Isaac JOHNSON on 3 AUG 1761 for land on Stiths Creek "joining William HAGOOD" probably refers to a tract next to that already mentioned and the old boundaries have been copied in the description. William does not appear in the deeds of Mecklenburg Co. formed from Lunenburg in 1765, no probate record is found for him in these counties. Because William and his sons did not own land after the sale in 1748 may mean that their economic status had declined, they had moved to another state, or they had died. The next available tithe list for Lunenburg Co. is dated 1764 and lists no HAGOOD. William may have moved with his family to North Carolina. If he died in Virginia he left no probate record. There is a chance that he may have moved back across the line into Brunswick Co. The Order Books there possess partial, original indexes after 1753...the following law suit is recorded: (Bk. 5, p. 168) "FEB 1754 William HAGOOD Plf. vs. Hezekiah POWELL Deft. In Trespass. The Deft. not being Arrested...an Alias Capias is awarded...to the next court." This suit abated in MAY 1754 (Bk. 5, p. 210). This law suit could possibly have referred to William Jr.

Children Include:

8. i. Benjamin HAGOOD b. in the 1720's.

9. ii. William HAGOOD, Jr. b. before 1731.

iii. John HAGOOD b. ca. 1733/35. He m. Lucy RAWLINGS on 12 MAY 1756 in Brunswick Co., Va. He was in his father's household in 1752. He signed his Last Will on 5 NOV 1807 in Warren Co., N.C. and his widow made her Last Will on 6 AUG 1821 in the same county. Some researchers believe he may have been the John HAGUEWOOD who appeared in the 1790C. of Ninety-Six District, Edgefield Co.,S.C. In this census John was shown as Head of Family with 3 males under 16 yrs. of age and 2 females in his household.

4. GEORGE HAGOOD, Jr. (Issue of #2)

b. probably before 1706. d. before 13 APR 1782 (Orange Co., N.C. Estates Inventory Bk. 1758-85). He m. Martha. He was the son of George (Sr.) and Ann HOGWOOD. He was old enough to be an executor of his father's Last Will in 1727. He followed his brother, William, to Brunswick Co., Va. and received from William 130 acres on the west side of Briery Creek on 1 APR 1736 (Bk. 1, p. 263). He obtained another 100 acres of land from Benjamin LANIER in 1750 (Bk. 4, p. 88) and is listed on the 1748 tithe list of Brunswick Co., Va. next to his brother Francis. "George HAGOOD and his wife Martha of Brunswick Co. sold both these tracts to George STEAGALL of Amelia Co. for 117 pounds, 10 shillings on 28 JAN 1755 (Bk. 5, p. 643). Shortly afterwards he would appear to have followed his brother John to Orange Co., North Carolina". He was excused from taxes in Orange Co. on 16 APR 1762 and witnessed the Last Will of James HAYGOOD on 20 FEB 1768. (James was a nephew of George Jr. and the son of John HAGOOD, Sr.

Children Include:

i. Bird HAYGOOD as spelled in the 1790C. Montgomery Co., N.C.

ii. Jesse HAGWOOD received a Revolutionary Voucher in Hillsboro District, which included Orange County, N.C. on 10 JUN 1783. A Revolutionary Pension application (R-4432) is indexed for Elizabeth, the widow of Jesse HAGOOD.

5. JOHN HAGOOD (Sr.) (Issue of #2)

b. shortly before 1706. Son of George (Sr.) and Ann HOGWOOD. He obtained 345 acres of land on the north side of Maherin River in Brunswick Co., Va. near Totero Creek from his brother William HAGOOD on 6 FEB 1733 (Bk.1, p.95). On 2 MAR 1741 he sold 100 acres from this on the south side of Totero Creek for 5 shillings to a younger brother, Francis HAGOOD, "being land where said Frances HAGOOD now lives" (Bk.2, p.140). John HAGOOD, Sr. may have left Brunswick Co. in the early 1750's leaving his name-sake and eldest son, John Jr. with the land on Totero Creek. The senior John is probably the "John HOGWOOD & son James" found in Orange Co., N.C. on the tax of 1755. He therefore left at least two sons.

Children Include:

10. i. John HAGOOD, Jr. probably b. by 1730.

11. ii. James HAGOOD b. before 1739.

6. FRANCIS HAGOOD (Issue of #2)

Son of George (Sr.) and Ann HOGWOOD. His wife was named Sarah. He purchased 100 acres of land on Totero Creek from his brother John Sr. in 1741. Francis was listed in the Brunswick Co., Va. tithe list of 1748, but not that of 1769. He probably moved across the border into Bute Co., N.C. (presently Warren Co.) in the late 1760's. He does not appear on the Bute Co. tax of 1766, but on that of 1771 in Col. William JOHNSON's list is "Francis HOGWOOD, sons William & Reuben" for 3 polls (a version of this list published in North Carolina Genealogy incorrectly transcribed the name as HAYWOOD.).

On 16 FEB 1770 Francis HAGWOOD of Bute Co., N.C. purchased from Thomas EATON 247½ acres "described in a deed from Thomas JOHNS, Jr. to Daniel PEGRAM" (Bk.3, p.32). This was apparently the same tract on Owens Creek that "William HAGWOOD & Sarah his wife, Reuben HAGWOOD & Phebe his wife and Francis HAGWOOD & Sarah his wife" sold for 120 pounds to Permanus WILLIAMS on 18 DEC 1777 (Bk. 6, p. 287). Francis died or moved elsewhere before the Warren Co. tax of 1779. He left at least two sons.

Children Include:

12. i. William HAGOOD/HAGUEWOOD/HAGWOOD b. ca 1740-50.

ii. Reuben HAGOOD/HAGWOOD/HOGWOOD b. before 1755. d. before OCT 1783. He m. Phebe (see deed of 18 DEC 1777 above). They sold 150 acres on Owens Creek to Ashkenaz WILLIAMS on the same date (Bk. 6, p. 333). Reuben HOGWOOD served in the S.C. Militia in 1780 and 1783 (S.C. Stub Entry dtd 25 APR 1785). Inventory on the Estate of Reuben HAGOOD, dec'd, was returned by Phebe HAGOOD, admr. in OCT 1783 Warren Co., N.C. They may have had a son named William.

7. RICHARD HAGOOD (Issue of #2)

d. after 1769. He m. Jane. Son of George (Sr.) and Ann HOGWOOD. He came to Brunswick Co., Va. with his brothers and on 30 JUL 1742 received a grant of 350 acres on the west side of Briery Creek (Patent Bk. 21, p. 122). He and his wife Jane made deeds dividing this land between two sons on 28 AUG 1759 (Bk. 9, pp. 514-16). They also sign a deed in 1769 when their son Mordecai sold 195 acres to Zebulon LEWIS.

Children Include:

i. Mordecai HAGOOD m. Elizabeth. Was in Brunswick Co., Va. in 1768 and 1771 when he bought land. They probably moved after this land was sold to Hawkins Co., Tenn. where he again purchased land, and probably died in this area.

ii. Gresham HAGOOD in Brunswick Co. in 1768 and 1800. He sold land also to Zebulon LEWIS in 1784.

8. BENJAMIN HAGOOD (3)

b. probably in the 1720's. An elder son of William, Sr. and Mary HAGOOD. His wife was Elizabeth. He was tithe in Lunenburg Co., Va. in 1748 and 1749, but not in 1751. He had probably moved for a time to Brunswick Co. where his son William was born in 1755. He left Brunswick Co. before the 1769 tithe list. His son, William, applied for a pension and on the application he states that he came as a child with his father to Johnston Co., N.C., however, his father Benjamin probably didn't own land there, nor does he appear in the Court Minutes until his death. No tax lists survive for Johnston Co. before 1786. Benjamin made his Last Will in Johnston Co., N.C. on 28 NOV 1781, proven in FEB 1782, naming his wife, Elizabeth, and four children. His widow Elizabeth was apparently in Montgomery Co., N.C. during the Census of 1790.

Children Include:

i. Griffin HAGOOD of Montgomery Co., N.C. in the 1790 Census.

ii. John HAGOOD no information other than the Last WILL.

iii. Elizabeth HAGOOD no information other than the Will.

iv. William HAGOOD b. 26 JUL 1755 Brunswick Co., Va. d. 29 OCT 1836 probably in Davidson Co., Tenn. William HAYGOOD at age 77 while living in Davidson Co., Tenn. where he had settled ca. 1829 (three years before the date of application) applied for a pension based on his Revolutionary War service. In his file at the National Archives is a copy of a letter dated 9 SEP 1937 and addressed to a Mr. Rufus H. BETHEA of Birmingham, Ala. The letter is quoted herein: "The data which follow were obtained from papers on file in the pension claim, S. 4314, based upon the military service of William HAYGOOD, the only soldier of that name that is found in the Revolutionary War records of this office.

William HAYGOOD was born July 26, 1755, in Brunswick County, Virginia. The names of his parents were not given. While an infant he moved with his father to Johnson County, North Carolina, and while living there he enlisted as early in the Revolution as 1778 or prior to that year and served with the North Carolina troops at various times until the close of the Revolution, as private under Captains Tanner ALFORD, John L. JONES, Ben RHODES, WHITLEY or WHITTEY and EVANS, and Colonels Robert MEBANE, SUMNER, MALLODY (evidently meant for MALMEDY) and LONG; he was in the battle of Stone Point.

After the Revolution (he returned to Johnston Co., N.C.) he moved to Montgomery County, North Carolina (for ca. 3 yrs.) from there to Fairfield County, South Carolina (for ca. 20 yrs.), from there to Roane County, Tennessee, then back to South Carolina, then to Twiggs County, Georgia, then to Rutherford County, Tennessee, from there back to Roane County, Tennessee, and from there to Davidson County, Tennessee.

William HAYGOOD was allowed pension on his application executed October 23, 1832, at which time he was living in Davidson County, Tennessee. He died October 29, 1836. There are no data relative to his family. /s/ A.D. HILLER Executive Assistant to the Administrator." unquote.

This William HAGOOD/HAYGOOD is the same person listed as Wm. HAIGWOOD in the 1790C. Fairfield Co., S.C. Head of Family with one male under 16 and one female in his household. He was enumerated as the next family (living next to) his first cousin Henry HAIGWOOD, who also was a Revolutionary War soldier. William was shown as a witness on a deed to his cousin, Henry HAIGOOD, from Jeremiah PEARSON on 14 AUG 1787 (Bk. "H", p. 128 Fairfield Co., S.C.). He does not appear in the 1800C. of S.C.

9. WILLIAM HAGOOD/HAGWOOD, Jr. (3)

b. before 1731, perhaps in the 1720's. Son of William Sr. and Mary HAGOOD. He was in his father's home in 1748. He appears to have established his own household in Lunenburg Co., Va. between the tithe lists of 1749-50. He remained there through 1752, probably moving later to Brunswick Co., Va., where in the Court Orders of FEB 1759 (Bk. 7, p. 306) the following appears: "The petition of William HAGWOOD, Jur. agst. William MACKLIN, Jur. ...with the consent of the parties...dismist." In Bute Co., N.C. (county discontinued in 1779 and became part of Franklin and Warren Co., N.C.) William HAGWOOD on 5 FEB 1765 witnessed a deed from Barsheba JONES to Randolph HAZILWOOD (Bk. A, p. 324). Prior to this date, in 1761 in the Granville Co., N.C. tax records Will. HAGOOD is shown as a resident, being just across the state line from Brunswick Co., Va. He was not listed on the 1766 tax list of Bute Co, nor the Brunswick Co. tithe list of 1768. He has not been found buying or selling land.

In Bute Co., N.C. we find apprentice records on three of his sons left orphaned by his death. The record shows that on 11 AUG 1775 "Lewis HAGWOOD, orphan of William HAGWOOD dec'd & 15 yrs. old next 23 OCT" was bound to William HAGWOOD of Bute Co., N.C. (Warren Co., N.C. Will Bk. 3, p. 65, recorded MAY 1780). Lewis was bound to his father's first cousin William (#12), son of Francis, and later to appear as William HAGUEWOOD in the 1790C. of Ninety-Six District, Edgefield County, South Carolina. We have knowledge that Lewis, Henry and Elisha HAIGWOOD all of Fairfield Co. in the 1790 Census were brothers, as was Buckner HAIGWOOD who appeared in the same census of Chester Co., S.C. Lewis named his first son Lewis Jr., his second son was apparently named for his father William and the third son b. in 1788 was named Buckner, no doubt the name-sake of Lewis's brother Buckner. Much credit for information on this family line goes to Mr. Jonathan BUTCHER of Cary, N.C., professional genealogist, who did a thorough search in Virginia and North Carolina on the line.

This INDENTURE places LEWIS HAGWOOD #16, orphan of WILLIAM HAGWOOD (Jr.) #9, as an Apprentice to his father's first cousin, also, WILLIAM HAGWOOD #12. Dated 11 AUG 1775 - Warren County, N.C.

Unfortunately, we still do not have the name of William Jr.'s wife. Did she die after her husband? In early times, sons of deceased men were often apprenticed-out, even though their mother might still be living.

Children Include:

13. i. Henry HAIGWOOD as listed in 1790C. Fairfield Co., S.C.

14. ii. Buckner HAIGWOOD as listed in 1790C. Chester Co., S.C.

15. iii. Elisha HAIGWOOD as listed in 1790C. Fairfield Co., S.C.

16. iv. Lewis HAIGWOOD as listed in 1790C. Fairfield Co., S.C.

v. William HAGWOOD III b. 10 MAR 1765 and d. ca. 1854/55. He apparently was born and died in the same area of Bute Co., N.C. (that section which later became Warren County). He 1st. m. 15 JAN 1786 Silvia DAVIS; 2nd. m. 15 JUL 1798 Mary DAVIS (a sister-in-law?); and 3rd. m. Susan, who survived him.

William, at the age of ten when his father died, was bound apprentice in 1775 to John CHRISTMAS, Jr. of Bute Co., N.C. (now Warren Co.). "William HAGWOOD, orphan of William HAGWOOD, dec'd be bound to John Christmas junr until he attain to lawful age, being 10 years old the 10th of March last." (Will Bk. 3 of Warren Co., N.C.).

In the Halifax District, Warren Co., N.C. census of 1790 he was enumerated as William HOGWOOD, Head of Family, with 1 male under 16, 1 female, perhaps his wife, and 1 slave in his household. There were four CHRISTMAS families remaining in this area during the 1790 Census, but not John Jr. William was 85 years old when he appeared in the 1850C. of Warren County.

His last will dated 8 AUG 1854 named some of his children and grandchildren. His son James apparently d. before 1854 and his widow, Martha, and their issue: James and Martha HAGOOD and Mary Tucker were named.

William Wallace WHITE, his mother having died before 1854, was named as a grandson in William's Last Will.

Another son of William was John. He was living in Warren Co. in 1854. He m. 7 JAN 1825 Sabrina M. HARRIS and their issue: Eliza, Lucy, William, James and Lemuel HAGOOD were mentioned in the will.

vi. Sion HAGWOOD "orphan of William HAGWOOD" was bound apprentice to Beckham RAINEY in Bute Co., N.C. on 13 AUG 1778. Was he a much younger child at the time of his father's death, remaining with his mother for another three years after his brothers had been apprenticed?

10. JOHN HAGOOD, Jr. (5)

b. ca. 1730, son of John HAGOOD (Sr.). He m. Mary LANIER. As eldest son and presumptive heir, he appears to have obtained his father's land on Totero Creek in Brunswick Co., Va. possibly when his father moved to Orange Co., N.C. in the early 1750's. He, in turn, left the "home plantation" on Totero Creek to his son Randall/Randolph HAGOOD. He first appears in the deeds in 1752. John, Jr. made his Last Will in St. Andrews Parish, Brunswick Co. on 13 MAY 1777, proven 22 SEP 1777 (Bk. 4, p. 516), mentioning land on both the north and south sides of Totero Creek. Witnesses: Lewis COLLIER, Elizabeth COLLIER and Mary ARCHER.

Children Include:

i. John HAGOOD, (III) was left only 5 shillings in his father's Last Will. He may have been the John who purchased land in Northampton Co., N.C. in JAN and MAR 1786 (Bk. 7, pp. 377-379). He last appears there selling land in 1793 (Bk. 9, p. 233). The 1790C. Northampton Co. lists him as John HOGWOOD with no one in his household.

ii. Benjamin HAGOOD probably b. in the early 1750's as he was the executor of his father's will. He received land on the south side of Totero Creek which he sold to Drury LANIER, Lewis COLLIER and Ephraim JACKSON in 1785 (Bk. 14, pp. 142, 179 and 183), and then apparently left Brunswick Co., Va.

17. iii. Randolph/Randall HAGOOD b. ca 1760/70.

iv. Elizabeth HAGOOD married Lewis COLLIER.

v. Mary HAGOOD may have been the Mary ARCHER who also witnessed her father's Last Will.

vi. Rebecca HAGOOD unmarried in 1777.

11. JAMES HAGOOD (Sr.) (5)

b. before 1739 (fm. a poll in 1755). Son of John HAGOOD (Sr.) and was listed in his father's household in Orange Co., N.C. in 1755. As James HAYGOOD he made his Last Will in the same county on 20 FEB 1768, proven 29 JUL 1768, mentioning his wife (Rebecca?) and children.

Children Include:

i. George HAYGOOD probably b. after 1755. He received a Revolutionary voucher in Hillsboro District on 10 JUN 1783. Likely of Wake Co., N.C. and unmarried at the time of the 1790 Census.

18. ii. Benjamin HAYGOOD b. 30 JUN 1758.

iii. Elizabeth HAYGOOD no information. (His wife Rebecca??).

iv. James HAYGOOD, Jr. no information.

v. William HAYGOOD received Revolutionary vouchers in Hillsboro District on 21 APR 1781, 9 SEP and 1 OCT 1783.

12. WILLIAM HAGOOD/HAGUEWOOD/HAGWOOD (6)

b. probably ca. 1740/50. Son of Francis and Sarah HAGOOD. He m. Sarah JOHNSON of Virginia. "Sarah was of French extraction on maternal side", quote from General Johnson HAGOOD. Her sister was Rebecca JOHNSON and m. John SALE. William was living in his father's household in Bute Co., N.C. in 1771. He purchased 100 acres of land in that county joining Jonathan JOHNSON and John JACKSON on 15 FEB 1770 (Bk. 3, p. 30) witnessed by James HARRISON and Charles BURK. He sold this property to John LANGFORD on 3 MAR 1772 (Bk. 3, p. 432) witnessed by Adams PARDUE, Beavil PARDUE and John WHATLEY. On 15 JAN 1775 he purchased from Reuben HAGOOD (his brother) 20 acres on Owens Creek, which was probably included in the joint sale to Permanus WILLIAMS on 18 DEC 1777 (Bk. 6, p.287). He had a wife named Sarah at this time, and would seem to have removed from Warren Co., N.C. before the Tax of 1779. Sarah, probably daughter of Jonathan.

William HAGUEWOOD was listed as Head of Family in the 1790C. Ninety-Six District, Edgefield Co., S.C. with 5 males under 16 yrs. of age; four females and five slaves in his household. He was listed as William HAGOOD in the same county in the 1800 Census; and as William HAGWOOD in the 1810 Census of that county.

This is the same William HAGOOD/HAGUEWOOD who was claimed by Brig. Gen. Johnson HAGOOD as his great-great grandfather. See Vol. 1, p.125 The Compendium of American Genealogy, First Families of America. General HAGOOD, USA, Chief of Staff, Supply Service in France during World War I, wrote the following to one of his children on 1 NOV 1921: "The first information we have as to the HAGOOD family is contained in an old bible in the possession of my first cousin, Butler HAGOOD, of Barnwell, S.C. It is known as the Gordon Bible, as it belonged to Anne GORDON, my great-great grandmother. In this bible it is stated that William HAGOOD (HAGUEWOOD) was a native of Virginia, of English descent; that he married Sarah JOHNSON, also of Virginia, who on the maternal side was of French extraction; that about the year 1776 he removed to the Ninety-Sixth District of South Carolina where he lived the rest of his life...The first census of Virginia and South Carolina 1782-1790 shows a number of HAGOODs - or HAGUEWOODs in Halifax and Princess Anne Counties of the former state and in Ninety-Six District of the latter. Also some HAYGOODs in North Carolina. Among these is William HAGOOD...pronounced (spelled) HAGUEWOOD...of the Ninety-Sixth District of South Carolina who was my great-great grandfather. He was a planter and a slave owner, marks of respectability, but was poor. His son Johnson was the first of the family to attain any degree of prominence in the affairs of the world." unquote. It should be noted here that the spelling HAGOOD can not be found anywhere in the 1790 Census of South Carolina.

It is also of interest that if General HAGOOD's great-grandfather, Johnson HAGOOD (the 1st.) had been born on 31 AUG 1772, as the General has given in his genealogy, then Johnson would have been 18 yrs. old at the time of the 1790 Census, and yet he was not counted in the household of his father, William HAGUEWOOD. Johnson did not marry until 1794, four years after the census; he could have been living elsewhere, perhaps in school or as an apprentice to a lawyer in Charleston, since the General did say that Johnson had become a lawyer in that city.

The following quote from Meet Your Grandfather by Major General Johnson HAGOOD (his son Colonel Johnson HAGOOD, Jr., Retired U.S. Army, and living in Charleston in 1984 corresponded with the compiler and said his father had retired as Major General in 1936): "Many ways of spelling, i.e., original HAWKWOOD; HAWGWOOD; HAGUEWOOD; HAIGWOOD; HAYGOOD & HAGOOD...while in China my brother was addressed by the natives as Lee HA-GOO...HAGWOOD & HAWGOOD... Sir John HAWKWOOD's shield (coat of arms) shown in his portrait in the Cathedral of Santa Maria del Flore in Florence, Italy, many hawks flying through the woods. In the Virginia records the name is HAWGOOD and HAGWOOD (HOGWOOD) due to our progenitor raising large numbers of pure bred hogs." unquote.

Children Include:

i. James HAGOOD was probably the James HOGGWOOD listed in the 1790C. of Ninety-Six Dist., Edgefield Co., S.C. with one son over 16, four sons under 16 and four females in his household. He inherited several hundred acres of land on Horse Pen Creek in Edgefield Co. from his father. He d. in Barnwell Co, S.C. in 1829 leaving four children: Gideon Johnson, Susan, Eliza Ann and William H. HAGOOD.

ii. John HAGOOD may have been married twice, once to Mrs. Elizabeth CAMPBELL and supposedly had one son by her. He may also be the John HAGUEWOOD listed in the 1790C. of Ninety-Six Dist., Edgefield Co., S.C. with three sons under 16 and two females in his household.

iii. George HAGOOD is possibly another son who was listed in the 1790C. of Ninety-Six Dist., Edgefield Co., S.C. as George HAGUEWOOD with only two females in his household.

19. iv. Johnson HAGOOD (the 1st. to bear this name) b. 31 AUG 1772.

v. Richard HAGOOD married and had at least two sons.

vi. Gideon HAGOOD m. Harriet YONGE 17 MAR 1796. They lived in Barnwell CO., S.C. and had eight children.

13. HENRY HAIGWOOD (Sr.) (9)

b. ca. 1750 in Virginia (probably Lunenburg Co. which was part of Brunswick Co. until it was established in 1746). He was the son of William HAGWOOD/HAGOOD, Jr. Henry HAIGWOOD, Sr. died between the 2nd. and 10th. of JUN 1817 in the south-eastern section of Camden District, Fairfield Co., S.C. (this section of Fairfield County became a part of Richland County in 1913). He is no doubt buried in what was formerly known as Doko, Fairfield Co., now named Blythewood, Richland Co., S.C. Henry was ca. 15 years of age when his father witnessed a deed on 5 FEB 1765 in Bute Co., N.C. (Bk. "A", p. 324). He would have been ca. 25 years old at the time of his father's death in 1775 in Bute Co., N.C. (In 1779 Bute Co. became Franklin and Warren Counties).

Henry was married to Frances "Fanny", probably in Virginia where several of their children were born, prior to moving his family to South Carolina in the early 1770's where he enlisted as a Private for Military Service during the Revolutionary War on Sunday, 9 FEB 1777. Several of his brothers also migrated to S.C. about the same time, settling in Fairfield and Chester Counties. His younger brother, Lewis, came to Fairfield Co. later.

Frances "Fanny" HAIGWOOD was b. before 1755 and d. after 1823. (see the 1800C. Fairfield Co. in which she was shown numerically in Henry's household as being over 45 years of age). "Fanny" is implied as the wife of Henry when her mark, an "X", appeared as a co-signer with Henry on an indenture (deed or release) on 19 APR 1795 in Fairfield Co. in which they sold 221 acres of land on Cedar Creek in that county to David DUNN for 50 pounds sterling. (Fairfield Co., S.C. Deed Bk. "N", pp. 376-378. Microfilm located in the S.C. Department of Archives & History at 1430 Senate Street, Columbia, S.C. Film Roll #WK 1692-93). This was the same 221 acres that Henry HAIGOOD had bought for "Forty Guinas" from Jeremiah PEARSON on 14 AUG 1787. (Fairfield Co. Deed Bk. "H", p.128).

1810 Census Fairfield Co., S.C. lists Frances HAIGOOD as Head of Family being 45 or older with one male 16 and under 26 (b. 1785-1794) and one female 16 and under 26 (b. 1785-1794). Her husband was not listed by name anywhere in S.C. in this census even though he did not die until seven years later in 1817. Perhaps he was out of state visiting his son James in Georgia or another son Henry, Jr. There is also the possibility that he had become very ill and was living with a married daughter, Harriet, who was caring for him and was the only one of his children that he named in his Last Will. No matter where he may have been in 1810 it is known that he did die in Fairfield County in 1817.

1820 Census Fairfield Co., S.C. "Fanny" HAYGOOD was now a widow and was listed as Head of Family age 45 or older with two females 16 and under 26. These daughters were probably Elitha and Mary who were named in a "Gift Deed" in 1823 by their mother. Mary had married a Mr. CUNNINGHAM who had perhaps died with Mary returning home to live with her mother and sister Elitha.

Frances "Fanny" HAIGOOD is mentioned several times in the Estate Papers in DEC 1817 and MAR 1818 when her brother-in-law, Lewis HAIGOOD, who had been appointed Administrator of Henry's Estate held public sales on some of the personal properties. (Henry HAYGOOD Apt. 19 File 240 S.C. Archives).

22 MAY 1823 Fanney HAIGOOD gave a "Gift Deed" to two of her daughters.

Sworn before me the 4th June 1823. /s/ Wm. HASSAM /s/ S W YONGUE C.C.P Recorded 4th June 1823.

On official documents pertaining to Henry HAIGWOOD, Sr., his name was spelled at least ten (10) different ways, i.e.: HAIGWOOD/HAGWOOD/HAGGOOD/ HOGWOOD/HOOGWOOD/HAIGHWOOD/HAGOOD/HAIGOOD/HAYGOOD and HAGUEWOOD. This was not at all uncommon in the 1700's when the great majority could not read or write and court officials would write, spelling the name as they heard it pronounced at the moment. Even in more modern times (during the WPA days of copyists in Washington, they would copy down on documents what they would interpret from old records, many times incorrectly) mistakes are still being made in official records, unfortunately.

The first evidence of Henry buying property was on 21 SEP 1784, when he apparently used the Indented Certificate given him by South Carolina for service rendered in 1781 during the Revolutionary War. Most likely Henry was already living in Camden District, Fairfield County and had returned there after the war. It was in this District that he bought 116 acres of land from John SWILLA. The Indent was then passed from SWILLA to William GILBERT then to the firm of Wadsworth & Turpin in Charleston.

REVOLUTIONARY WAR SERVICE. During the war Henry HAIGWOOD, Sr. served as a Private in the 2nd. Company of Captain John C. SMITH, 3rd. Regiment of the South Carolina Continental Troops, Commanded by Colonel William THOMSON (or THOMPSON). Records show that he enlisted and served at least from Sunday, 9 FEB 1777 to MAR 1780, and additional records are on hand to prove his service in the South Carolina Militia as a "Footman" in 1781 in Colonel TAYLOR's Regiment, probably joining or being assigned to TAYLOR's Regiment after the "Siege of Charleston" in 1780 and at which time he was attached to the 3rd. Regiment in garrison at Charleston. For his service to his State and Country he received an Indent and was given a Grant of land by his Excellency William MOULTRIE, Esquire, Governor and Commander in Chief of South Carolina. (See documents that follows).

The following documents on Henry HAIGWOOD, Sr. pertaining to his service in the Revolutionary War are on file in the General Services Administration, National Archives and Records Service Division in Washington, D.C. These records were copied from original documents by employees during the years of W.P.A.:

(1) His name appears in a book* as Henry HA^{X}GWOOD a Private on the Rolls of 3d South Carolina Regiment, commanded by Col. Wm. THOMPSON. His date of enlistment is given as 9 FEB 1777 for what appears to be a period of three years to 1 FEB 1780. (* "This book appears to have been copied from the original rolls in the Office of Army Accounts under the Paymaster General, U.S.A., who was authorized by Congress, July 4, 1783 to settle and finally adjust all accounts whatsoever between the United States and the officers and soldiers of the American army. (Journal American Congress, Vol.4, page 237.) -R. & P. 436, 786.") Speidel, Copist. The above information may be found in Vol.9, p.140.

a "Plantation" or tract of land containing two hundred and twenty-one (221) acres belonging to the said Jeremiah PEARSON. The land was situated in the Camden District on the banks of Cedar Creek, bounded on the N.E. by land belonging to Jacob BETHANY; on the S.W. by land owned by William DORTCH; on the N.W. by the land of John SWILLA and on the West by land of Jeremiah PIERSON. (Note: All four of these men were still neighbors of Henry HAIGWOOD at the time of the 1790 Census.) The property had originally been granted to Mr. PIERSON on 1 MAY 1786 by His Excellency William MOULTRIE, Esqr., Governor and Commander in Chief of South Carolina. The deed was witnessed by Jacob BETHANY, Joseph PIERSON and William HAYGOOD (see #8.iv.) The entire document appears to be in the same handwriting as that of D. EVANS, C.F.C. who recorded it as late as 18 FEB 1793, six years after the agreement was made. Henry's last name was spelled "HAIGOOD" six times in this document. The witness William HAYGOOD was the first cousin of Henry, son of Benjamin HAGOOD (#8). Willian was living next door (or next family) to Henry in the 1790C. of Fairfield Co., S.C. William had also been a Private in the Revolutionary War from North Carolina. This indenture or deed is recorded in Deed Bk. "H", p.128 Fairfield Co., S.C.

1790-91: During this period the First Census of the United States was taken and included Camden District, Fairfield County, S.C. where Henry was shown thereon as "H^{y} HAIGWOOD" Head of Family with one male b. before 1774 (himself) and one male over 16 years of age; one male under 16 and six females, including his wife, in his household. His neighbor on one side in 1790 was Joel WILSON and on the other side was his first cousin Wm. HAIGWOOD with a male under 16 and a female, probably his wife, in his household.

INDENTURE by HENRY HAIGWOOD/HAYGOOD #13 (spelled both ways) and his wife FANNY HAYGOOD selling 221 acres of land to DAVID DUNN. Dated 19 APR 1795

FAIRFIELD COUNTY, SOUTH CAROLINA

12 AUG 1793: Henry HAIGWOOD was a witness this date on a deed when his brother, Elisha HAIGWOOD (Sr.), purchased property from John BAGWELL in Camden District, S.C. Both Henry and Elisha's names were spelled "Haigwood" for a total of sixteen times on this document. (Deed Bk. "I", p.234).

19 APR 1795: On this date Henry and Fanny HAIGWOOD sold to David DUNN for "50 pounds Sterling - - a certain track or plantation of land containing 221 acres on a branch of Ceader Creek - - doth represent the same 221 acres being part of a track of 640 acres originally granted unto Jeremiah PEARSON Senior under the hand of Wm. MOULTRIE Esq^{re} dated the first day of May anno domini 1786." This Release, signed with their marks, by Henry and Fanny HAIGWOOD/HAYGOOD/HAGWOOD (spelled three ways in the document) was the first evidence discovered showing that Fanny (Frances) was the wife of Henry. (Deed Bk. "N", pp.376-378 Fairfield Co. - Microfilm now located in the S.C. Archives Film Roll #WK 1692-93).

1800 Census Fairfield Co., S.C. lists Henry HAIGOOD, Sr. as Head of Family being 45 years of age or older with one male 16 and under 26; one male under 10; one female (his wife) 45 or older; two females 10 and under 16; and two females under 10 in his household. His son Henry HAIGOOD, Jr. was also shown in the same census as Head of Family.

2 JUN 1817: On this date Henry HAYGOOD made his last Will and Testament. It is recorded in the Fairfield County Estate Papers, Apt. #19-240 located now in the S.C. Archives in Columbia. There are a total of 15 documents in this file, including the Last Will. The Will itself was originally recorded in Will Bk. 7, p.140 Fairfield Co.

The Last Will and Testament of Henry HAIGWOOD, Sr. is quoted verbatum:

"The Last Will and Testament of Henry HAYGOOD, In the name of God Amen. Being sensible of my Death and that It was ordained for all men to die, I in my perfect senses dispose of my property in the following manner. Item, To my Daughter Harriet I give and bequeath one Bed and two sheets and two pillows the ballance of my property I wish to be sold and after my just Debts are Satisfied for an equal Division to take place between all of my children my Dearly beloved daughter with the rest signed Sealed and witnefsed this 2^{d} of June in the year of our Lord one thousand Eight Hundred and Seventeen in the presence of, John DELLENT, Simeon McGRAW, John W. RABB, Witnefses. HENRY (his / mark) HAYGOOD."

"In the court of ordinary for Fairfield district on the 10th day of June in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and Seventeen Personally appeared Simeon Mc GRAW who being duly Sworn made oath that he did see the within Henry HAIGOOD sign seal publish and declare the within instrument to be and contain his last will and testament and that to the best of the knowledge and belief of this deponent the said deceased was then of sound and disposing mind and memory. that He together with John DELENY and John W RABB did sighn their names as witnefs thereto. /s/ SIMEON McGRAW."

From the Last Will several items come to attention. Although there were other children and his wife, Henry did not make any mention of them in his Will. He may have been living in the household of his daughter Harriet and if she was married one of the witnesses of the Will could possibly have been her husband. Henry was not shown in the 1810 Census as being Head of a Family and was therefore probably living in someone else's household.

Henry's Last Will was very brief, uncommon in the eighteen hundreds, leading one to believe that Henry was critically ill and signed the Will just before his death. As we have seen from the Will and the sworn statement of one of the witnesses, Henry signed the Will on the 2nd of June and when Simeon McGRAW signed the sworn statement on the 10th of June he referred to Henry as the "said deceased". Another indication of his feeble condition may be seen when comparing "his mark" of one straight perpendicular line on the Will with that of "his mark" as a witness in the 1793 deed to his brother Elisha (Sr.) on which he made a very fancy "H". This same fancy "H" was also noticed on many of Elisha's official documents as being his mark as well. According to the Estate settlement papers there were at least three doctors who were treating Henry during his illness, with one doctor submitting charges for $64.00 to the Estate.

On 26 NOV 1817 Lewis HAIGOOD was appointed by the Court to serve as the Executor of his brother's (Henry) Estate. Lewis appears to have been the only one of the brothers living in Fairfield Co. who could read and write. Henry's family perhaps asked for his services. A committee of three submitted an appraisal of Henry's personal property on 12 DEC 1817. Lewis held at least two public sales of the personal property. No mention has been found regarding the disposition of the home and 116 acres of land still owned by Henry. The same 116 acres that six years after her husband died, Fanny (on 22 MAY 1823) gave her DOWER's share of this property to her two daughters. (Deed Bk. "EE", pp. 122-123). A thorough search is continuing for a settlement of this 116 acres, for within the settlement papers there should be a complete listing of the children of Henry and Frances "Fanny" HAIGWOOD.

Children Include:

i. Henry HAIGWOOD, Jr. b. between 1766-1774 (as determined from the 1790-1800- & 1810 Census of Fairfield Co., S.C.) He was probably b. in Virginia. Henry, Jr. was shown in his father's household in the 1790C. as being over 16 years of age. The 1800C. Fairfield Co. p.199 listed him as Henry HAIGOOD, Jr. Head of Family being 26 and under 45, his wife being in the same age category, with one male 10 and under 16 (b. 1785-1790); two males under 10 (b. after 1790); one female 10 and under 16 (b. 1785-1790); and three females under 10 (b. after 1790).

The 1810C. Fairfield Co. p.193 shows him as Henry HAIGOOD Head of Family being 26 and under 45. His wife being in the same age range. One male 16 and under 26 (b. 1785-1794); three males under 10 (b. after 1800); one female 10 and under 16 (b. 1795-1800) and two females under 10 (b. after 1800).

Henry, Jr. was not found in another census in Fairfield Co. after 1810. There was a Henry HAYGOOD in the 1820C. and a Henry HAIGOOD in the 1830C. of that county who was a first cousin and the son of Elisha HAIGWOOD (Sr.).

Henry, Jr. may possibly be the same person who appears in the 1850 Census of Amite Co., Mississippi in the household of William and Mariah HAYGOOD and their son William I. This Henry HAYGOOD was shown as having been born in 1774 in Va.

William (his son?) was b. 1803 in S.C. and Mariah b. 1803 in Georgia, while their son William I. was b. in 1836 in Amite Co., Miss. Henry, Jr. and his family could have removed from S.C. to Ga. and later followed a brother, Elijah, to Mississippi.

Another son of Henry, Jr. could have been the Elisha HAYGOOD who also appeared in the 1850C. of Amite Co., Miss. near his father and brother William. Elisha was b. 1807 in S.C. His wife Elizabeth b. 1817 in Va. or Ga. Their children were listed as: Lancelot b. 1837 Amite Co.; Lewis H. b. 1843 and Martha b. 1844, both b. in Wilkinson Co., Miss.

20. ii. James HAIGWOOD b. 1781/1784.

21. iii. Elijah HAIGWOOD b. after 1790.

iv. Harriet HAIGWOOD b. before 1790. She was the only issue actually mentioned by name in her father's Last Will. Her nephew Henry Harrison HAIGWOOD, son of James, named his first daughter Harriet.

v. Martha Andrews HAIGWOOD b. before 1790. d. before MAY 1819 date of settlement of her father's "Personal Estate". Her husband William STEEL was named in the settlement papers.

vi. DAUGHTER b. before 1790.

vii. DAUGHTER b. before 1790.

viii. DAUGHTER b. before 1790.

ix. Mary HAIGWOOD b. 1785/1794 m. Mr. CUNNINGHAM.

x. Elitha HAIGWOOD b. 1794/1804.

14. BUCKNER HAIGWOOD (the first) (9)

b. ca. 1753 in Virginia or North Carolina. He d. 1828 in Todd Co. (now Christian Co.) Kentucky. He was the son of William HAGWOOD/HAGOOD, Jr. He m. Rosanna ARCHER, daughter of William ARCHER of Rocky Creek, Chester Co., S.C. (Could they have been originally from Amelia Co., Va.? where Randolph HOGWOOD m. Jane ARCHER on 12 DEC 1783 and witnessed by David HOGWOOD). Rosanna is listed in a deed dtd. 27 APR 1814 and recorded in Christian Co., Ky. The Last Will of her father William ARCHER dtd. 19 OCT 1794, acknowledged in open court on 26 JAN 1795 in Chester Co., S.C. stating that after the death of his wife, Isbel ARCHER, his property, except for the land, should be divided into four equal parts between his son Robert, and Bucknar HAGOOD, William PEDEN and John PEDEN. The land was willed to his grandson, William ARCHER. (Chester Co., S.C. Wills Apt. 1, Pack 21).

Reference to an early document containing the name of Buckner HAIGWOOD may be found in Scotch-Irish Migration to S.C. - 1772 p. 53 by Jeane STEPHENSON. Found in Plat Folder, Pre-Revolutionary plats in the South Carolina Department of Archives and History at Columbia, relating: "Plat Folder #1274; 6 JAN 1773 Elizabeth MAYBEAN was issued a warrant for 100 acres of land in Craven Co. (after 1785 Craven became Chester Co.) on the south fork of Rocky Creek. The 100 acres were adjoining tracts of land already belonging to William STANFORT, Nickalas THOMPSON and Buckner HAIGWOOD".

1790 Census of Chester Co., S.C. listed Buckner HAIGWOOD as Head of Family with 1 male 16 yrs. or older; 3 males under 16; and 4 females, including his wife, no ages given; and 1 slave.

1800 Census Chester Co., S.C. listed Muckner HAYGOOD as Head of Family. It was the nephew and name-sake of this Buckner, and the son of Lewis HAIGWOOD of Fairfield Co., S.C., who built the home ca. 1810 in Doko, Fairfield Co. (now the area of Blythewood, Richland Co., S.C.). The home was still standing and in a well preserved condition in 1967. For additional information see #30.

Buckner HAIGWOOD (the first) removed with his family from Chester County to Kentucky sometime after the 1800 Census. He, or his son Buckner Jr., received land grants in 1816 and 1826 in Todd and Christian Counties, under the name of Buckner HAGOOD.

Children Include:

22. i. Elijah HAYGOOD b. MAR 1771.

ii. Molly HAGOOD b. ca. 1773 in S.C. m. James Kenedy ALLEN Their issue: William H.; Elisha (1st. m. Caty Ann FAULKS and 2nd. m. Jane WHITSON); James Kenedy Jr. (m. Sally M. TERRY...they are ancestors of Frances M. ALLEN of Ft. Worth, Texas who has written on her line); Margaret (m. Daniel HOOSER); and Elizabeth ALLEN (m. Isom MALONE).

23. iii. William Garrison HAGOOD b. 1 OCT 1776.

iv. Nancy B. HAGOOD b. ca 1780 in Chester Co., S.C. m. Andrew M. McFARLAND in Christian Co., Ky. on 25 FEB 1819.

v. Rosie (Rosannah) HAGOOD b. ca 1782 in Chester Co., S.C. m. 29 FEB 1820 William PEDEN (a cousin?) in Christian Co., Kentucky. They may have had a son named James T. PEDEN.

vi. Buckner HAIGWOOD, Jr. b. ca 1784 Chester Co., S.C. and d. 1 JAN 1838 in Todd Co. (now Christian Co.), Ky. m. 11 NOV 1819 Eleanor "Ellen" PEDEN (some relation?) in Christian County. Buckner Jr. was a Private in the War of 1812 with Capt. David SMITH's Tennessee Militia. His wife was an applicant for a widow's pension. Documents show that his brother Elijah HAGOOD was present at his death, as were Robert B. and James S. HAGOOD. Possibly they were sons of Buckner Jr.

vii. Robert HAGOOD b. ca 1787 in Chester Co., S.C. and d. 14 JAN 1850 in Lexington, Lafayette Co., Missouri. He married in Christian Co., Ky. 11 DEC 1817 (one record gives 12 NOV 1817) Harriett PAYNE b. ca. 1798. Robert served as a Private during the War of 1812, perhaps in the same unit as his brother Buckner Jr. He volunteered from Todd Co., Ky. His wife applied for a pension and it was approved on 21 JUL 1880 while she was living in Aullville, Missouri. Among their issue were: William F. HAGOOD who married Susan White BEATTIE; Lewis HAGOOD; and James T. HAGOOD.

viii. Elisha HAGOOD b. JUN 1809 in Kentucky and d. 31 OCT 1859 in Tarrant Co., Texas. His family was among the first pioneers to arrive in that county. He m. Rebecca HALSELL. Their issue included: William Thomas HAGOOD; Elizabeth Ann HAGOOD who married E.A. SMALLWOOD; Robert L. HAGOOD; Rosanna HAGOOD; Benjamin F. HAGOOD; Richard K. HAGOOD; James O. HAGOOD; and Rufus Binyon HAGOOD who married Sallie WINTER.

15. ELISHA HAIGWOOD (Sr.) (9)

b. ca. 1754 probably in Virginia or North Carolina. Son of William HAGWOOD/HAGOOD, Jr. He married Elizabeth Ann who was born between 1756-65 and died ca. 1846. Elisha died 8 APR 1826 according to records in Camden District, Fairfield Co., S.C. (The Haigwood Bible gives his death as 4 MAR 1826.). He was no doubt buried in Fairfield County, that part which since 1913 has been a part of Richland Co., S.C.

Elisha was a "Plantor". Records indicate that he was a very prosperous farmer, with large land and slave holdings. He could not read or write, but used a large, fancy "H" for his mark on official documents. On legal records Elisha's last name was spelled in the following ways: HAIGWOOD/ HAIGOOD/HAGUEWOOD/HAGOOD/HAIGGOOD/HAYGOOD/HAGGOOD/ and HAGWOOD. A list of documents, all found in Fairfield Co., S.C. pertaining to this Elisha, are listed below and on the following pages:

1787-1795: Elisha HAIGOOD from Sheriff John WINN; a Sheriff's Title. (Bk. "I", p. 309). This is probably the son of General WINN of the Revolutionary War, and for whom Winnsboro the county seat of Fairfield Co. was named. The sheriff was John Jr.

1790 Census Fairfield Co., S.C. Elisha HAIGWOOD was listed as the Head of his Family with 1 male 16 yrs. of age or older; 5 males under 16 yrs. of age; 4 females (including wife) no ages, and 1 slave.

1800 Census Fairfield Co., S.C. Elisha HAIGOOD listed as Head of Family with 7 other males; 4 females and 2 slaves.

1803-1805 Elisha HAIGWOOD/HAGOOD/HAIGGOOD/HAYGOOD gave a Deed to his son, John HAGGOOD. (Bk. "P", pp.238-239).

17 OCT 1809 Elisha (sometimes spelled Elizabeth in this document) HAGGOOD/HAGWOOD from Thomas HENDRIX; a Release. (Bk. "S", p.260).

1810 Census Fairfield Co., S.C. Elisha HAIGOOD listed as Head of Family with 4 other males; 5 females and 5 slaves.

1812 Elisha HAIGWOOD to Jacob GIBSON; a Release. (Bk. "V", p.34).

1815 Elisha HAYGOOD from Issac HEATHCOCK; a Release. (Bk. "X", p.63).

1815 Elisha HAYGOOD from Issac HEATHCOCK; a Lease. (Bk. "X", p.68).

1817 Elisha HAIGOOD to Henry HAIGWOOD; a Release. (Bk. "Y", p.339).

1820 Census Fairfield Co., S.C. Elisha HAYGOOD, Jr. listed as Head of Family with 2 other males; 3 females and 9 slaves. (Note: A mistake in placing "Jr." behind the wrong Elisha was probably made on this census record. Elisha, Jr. had no slaves in 1820.)

1821 Elisha HAYGOOD from Andrew TURNIPSEED; a Bill of Sale. (Bk. "CC",p.55).

27 JAN 1826 Elisha HAGOOD/HAYGOOD (on the same day that he signed his Last Will) gave a Deed to his son-in-law, Leonard SITZ, selling him for $600.00, 150 acres of land on which SEITZ and his wife, Cynthia HAIGWOOD SEITZ, were living on a branch of Cedar Creek. Elisha's wife, Elizabeth, also placed her mark on the deed. Elisha's son, Henry, was shown on the deed as a Justice of the Peace. (Bk. "GG", pp.123-125 and microfilm roll #C 306 in S.C. Archives at Columbia).

27 JAN 1826 Elisha HAYGOOD/HAIGOOD signed his Last Will naming his wife and all twelve of his children. Recorded on 3 AUG 1827 Fairfield Co., S.C. (App. #51-786, Bk.10, p.114).

1 JAN 1846 On this date after the death of Elisha's widow and about 20 yrs. after his death, Charles BROOM one of the Executors of Elisha's Estate apparently submitted the final settlement papers on the Estate to the Courts. Examined and approved on 10 MAR 1849. (Microfilm Roll #JR 4741 Fairfield Co., S.C. Probate Court Records File #51-52 Pkg. #781-810. S.C. Archives, Columbia, S.C.).

Children Include:

i. Mary HAIGOOD b. before 1790. m. Mr. ANDREWS. d. before 1846.

ii. John HAIGOOD b. 1775-1784. The eldest son. John HAGGOOD bought 200 acres of land from his father in 1803-1805 for $200.00 (Bk. "P", pp.238-239 Fairfield Co.). On 23 SEP 1807 while living in Richland Co. John HAIGWOOD/HAGWOOD received a Release from Joshua STARNS. (Bk. "R", p.176 Fairfield Co.). On 27 OCT 1808 John HAIGWOOD/HAGWOOD gave his brother, Elisha HAIGWOOD/HAGWOOD, Jr. a Release. (Bk. "S" p.42 Fairfield Co.). He was probably m. between 1803-1805. John HAIGOOD was listed as Head of Family in the 1810 Census of Fairfield Co. with three males under 10 yrs. of age. No females. His wife had perhaps died. The 1820C. Fairfield Co. shows John HAIGOOD as Head of Family with 3 males under 10 yrs. of age; 2 males at least 10 and under 16 yrs. of age; 3 females under 10 and 1 female (wife?) 26 and under 45. He had perhaps married again after the 1810 Census. He was "Represented" on 1 JAN 1846 when his father's Estate was being settled.

24. iii. Elisha HAIGOOD, Jr. b. 1785.

25. iv. William HAIGOOD b. 1785/1790.

viii. Elijah HAIGOOD b. 1790/1794. m. between 1810-20. He died before 1 JAN 1846. Elijah HAYGOOD was Head of Family 1820C. Fairfield Co., S.C. with 1 male under 10 yrs. of age and 1 female (wife?) 16 and under 26.

ix. Courtney HAIGOOD b. 1795/1800 m. Robert? DUKE between 1820 and 1826. She was living on 1 JAN 1846.

x. Archibald HAIGOOD b. 1795/1800 m. after 1820 to Elizabeth. He received 152 acres in his father's Last Will, on which he was already living in 1826. He was Head of Family in 1820C. Fairfield Co. with 1 male under 10 yrs. and 1 female between 16 and 26 yrs. of age, and 1 slave. He apparently left South Carolina after his father's death, for he and his family may be located in Washington Co., Ga. Census of 1830, 1840 and 1850. In 1830 the name is spelled HAGWOOD and in 1840 and 1850 the spelling is HAYGOOD.

xi. Sarah "Sally" HAIGOOD b. 1795/1800. Not married in 1826. She was living and probably not m. on 1 JAN 1846.

28. x. Cynthia "Cinthy" HAIGOOD b. 1800/1810. d. before 1 JAN 1846.

16. LEWIS HAIGWOOD (Sr.) (9)

b. 23 OCT 1760 in Virginia or North Carolina. Son of William HAGWOOD/HAGOOD, Jr. He d. between 24 DEC 1814 and 10 JAN 1815 in the south-eastern section of Camden District, Fairfield Co., South Carolina (this area of Fairfield County was taken into Richland Co. in 1913). Lewis is buried in the "Haigood Cemetery" located in the front yard of the home his son, Buckner HAIGWOOD (the second), built ca. 1810 in Doko, Fairfield Co. (now Blythewood, Richland Co., S.C.). His wife was b. 1756-1764. She d. between 1810-1814. She was listed numerically in the 1810C. Fairfield Co. with Lewis, but was not named in his Last Will of 1814.

On 11 AUG 1775 "Lewis HAGWOOD, orphan of William HAGWOOD, dec'd & 15 yrs. old next 23 OCT." was bound to his father's first cousin, William (#12), of Bute Co., N.C. (Warren Co., N.C. Will Bk. 3, p.65, recorded MAY 1780). Lewis HOGWOOD was still in Halifax District, which included Warren Co.,on 17 SEP 1781 and 12 FEB 1782 when he received Revolutionary vouchers, to the latter on which he signed his own name. He was, however, gone from North Carolina by the 1790 Census. Lewis of Warren Co., N.C. would appear to have left N.C. between 1782 and 1790. (More likely he left before the middle of 1781, see the Indent dated 9 JUL 1787 listed below.)

Lewis was a "Plantor". He apparently had Revolutionary War service in both North and South Carolina. Various spellings found for his name in official records are: HAIGWOOD/HAYGOOD/HAYWOOD/HAGUEWOOD/HAIGOOD/HAGWOOD and HOGWOOD.

Documents pertaining to Lewis HAIGWOOD (Sr.) are as follows:

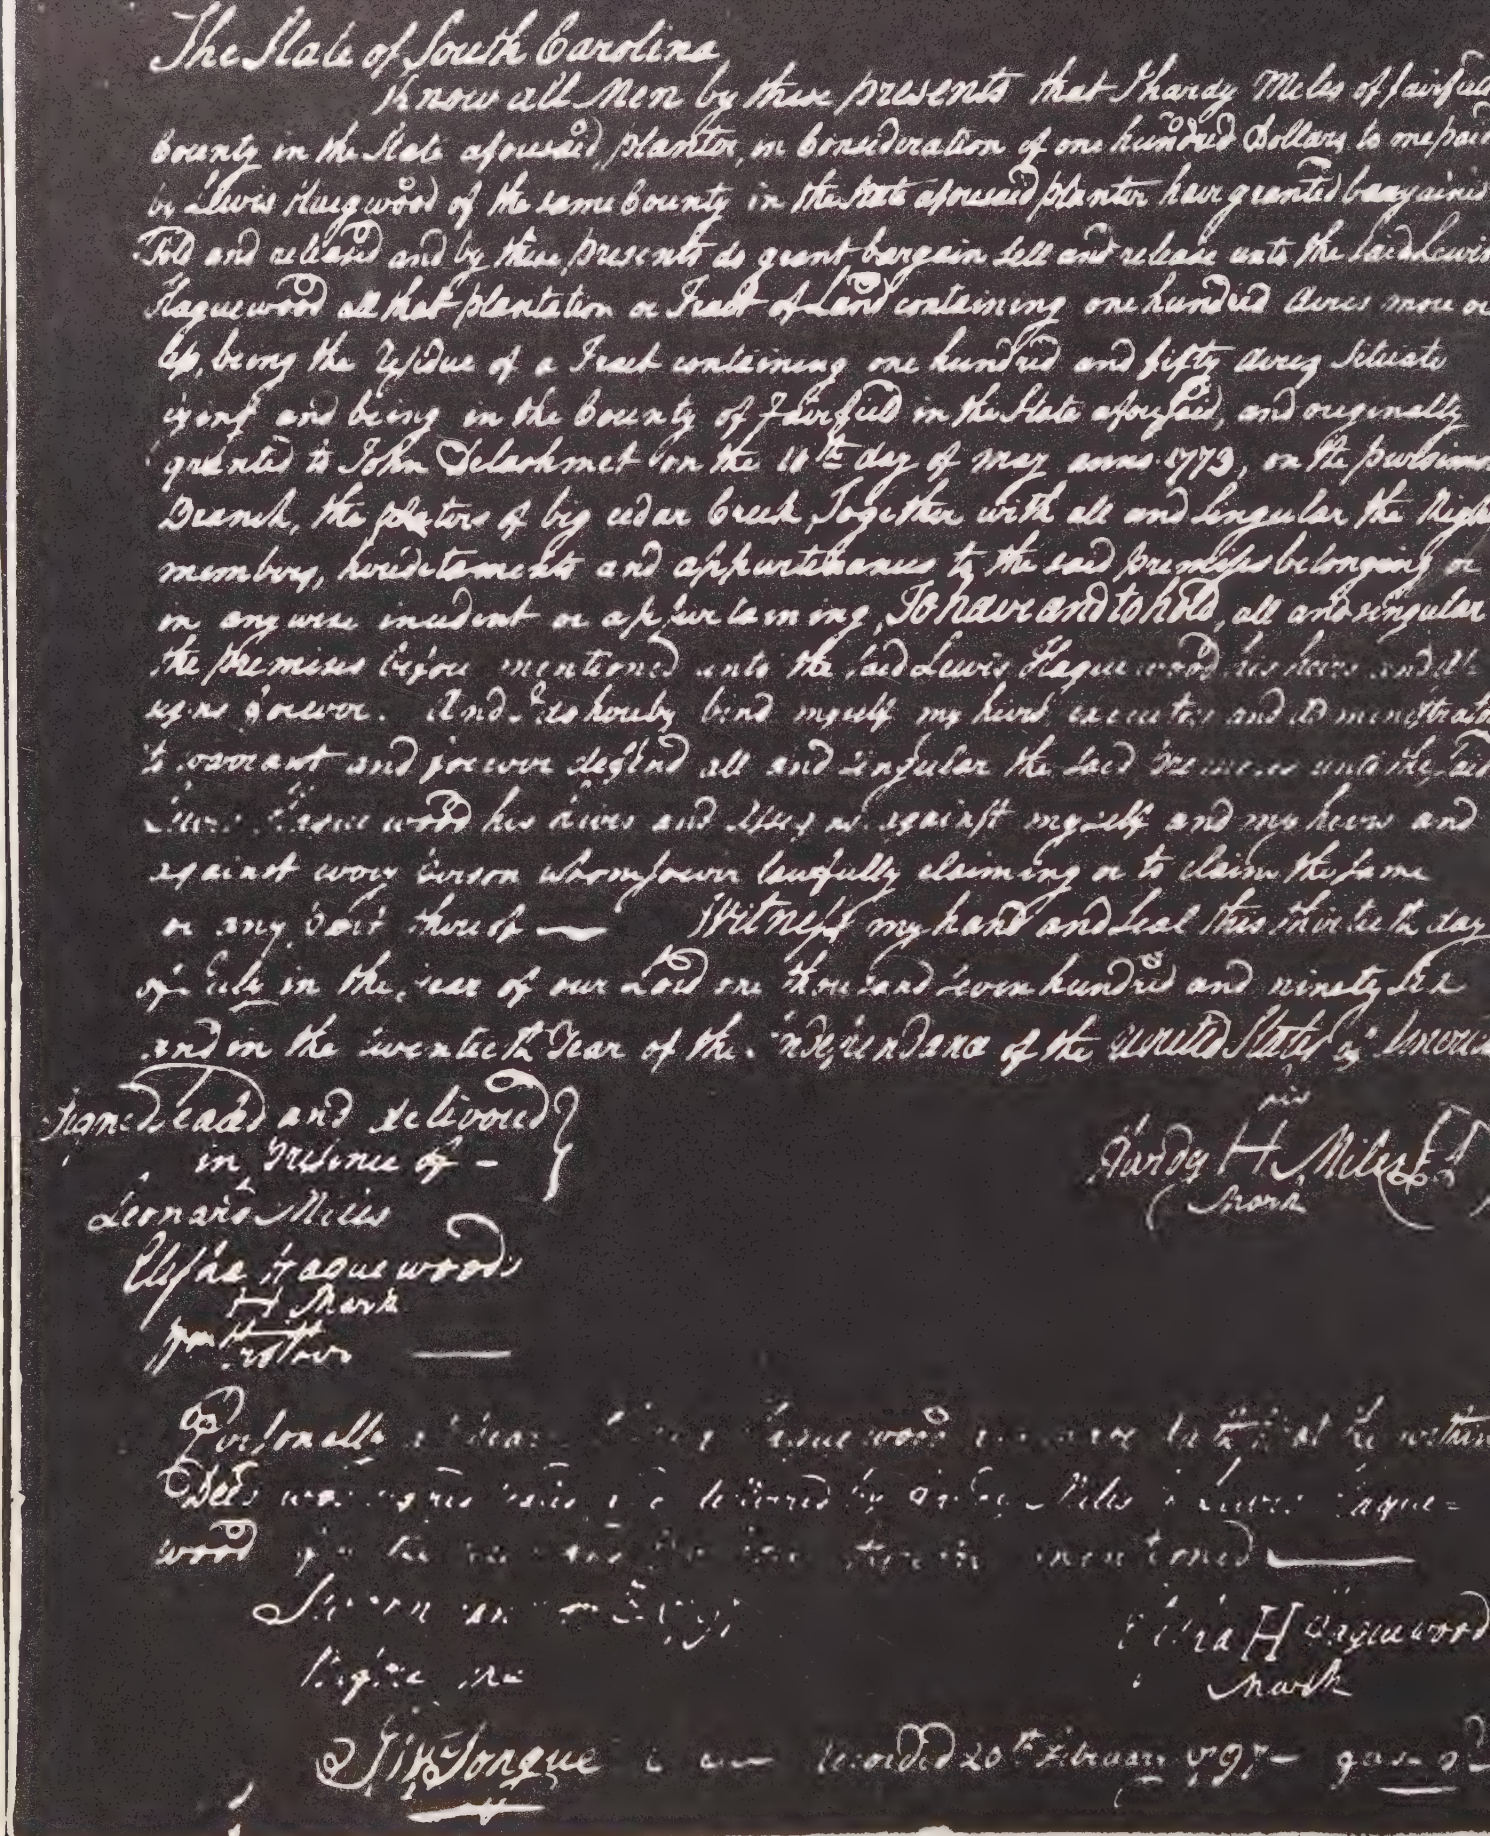
The Last Will of Lewis HAIGWOOD/HAIGOOD #16, (Continued)



INDENTURE between LEWIS HAIGWOOD #16 and HARDY MILES. Witnessed by ELISHA HAGUEWOOD, Lewis' brother. Dtd 30 JUL 1796 - Fairfield Co., S.C.

(44-c)

1810 Census Fairfield Co., S.C. Lewis HAIGOOD listed as Head of Family with only one daughter and his wife in his household. At the time he had eight slaves.

24 DEC 1814: Lewis (HAIGWOOD - 5 spellings) (HAIGOOD - 4 spellings) signed his Last Will naming his living children. His wife was not named. (Bk. "D", fol. 240 Fairfield County Estate Papers, Apt. #18-232).

Children Include:

i. Lewis HAIGWOOD, Jr. b. ca 1774. On 19 NOV 1832 Lewis HAGOOD/HAYGOOD was appointed the Administrator of Elisha HAIGOOD's estate, Lewis being his eldest brother. Lewis, Jr. may very well be the father of Louis HAYGOOD (#1D. in Section D).

18. BENJAMIN HAYGOOD (Sr.) (11)

b. 30 JUN 1758 Orange Co., N.C. d. 4 JUN 1841 Monroe Co., Ga. Son of James and (Rebecca?) HAGOOD, Sr. He m. Mary Ann STEWART on 25 DEC 1777. She was b. 25 DEC 1760 and d. 25 DEC 1853, the daughter of James and Elizabeth STEWART who were m. 1758 in Cumberland Co., N.C.

Benjamin HAYGOOD was named in his father's Last Will dtd. 20 FEB 1768 Orange Co., N.C. (Will Bk. "A", p. 83). The 1795 Tax Digest of Hancock Co., Ga. lists Benjamin HAGWOOD from Mars Hill Region in present day Oconee County (originally Jackson and then Clarke Co.) He also appeared on a membership roll of Mars Hill Church (Family Puzzlers, p. 136). Benjamin HAGWOOD had two blank draws, no land received, in the 1805 Land Lottery. At the time he was living in Clarke Co., Ga. (Georgia Genealogical Magazine, p. 252). Benjamin HAGWOOD appeared as Head of Family in the 1820C. Athens, Clarke Co., Ga. Benjamin HAGOOD appeared in the Guardian Bonds Bk. "B", Administrators & Guardian Bonds of Clarke Co., Ga. "Mary MOSS, Guardian of Sally, orphan of John MOSS, dtd. 6 MAR 1820; Benjamin HAGOOD, surety." (Georgia Genealogical Magazine, p. 1627).

Benjamin HAGOOD, Sr. was listed as Head of Family in the 1830 Census of Monroe Co., Ga., as was his youngest son, Benjamin HAGOOD, Jr. on the same page. The Last Will of Benjamin HAYGOOD is recorded in Will Bk. "A", p. 159 Monroe Co., Ga. (Georgia Genealogical Magazine Vol. 47, p. 15).

According to one researcher, Benjamin on 30 OCT 1838 made a sworn statement in court that he had volunteered for service in 1775 under the command of Capt. George HEARNDON in Chatham Co., N.C. Later, after his death, his widow applied for a pension on 8 DEC 1845 in Monroe County, Georgia. The researcher further states that this pension was not granted by the Department of Interior, Bureau of Pensions due to "insufficient proof to warrant a pension". Another researcher, as we will see on the next page, says only that "his widow later applied for a pension".

We have seen several cases in which the widow has been denied a pension due to the lack of evidence of her husband's service that could be found by the family of the deceased in those earlier days, only to surface many years later when research facilities were more complete and available. According to the last researcher, Benjamin was issued a Revolutionary voucher in Hillsboro District, North Carolina in 1781.

Benjamin Sr. from Chatham Co. (formerly Orange Co.), N.C. served in the Revolutionary War as a Private in the North Carolina Brigade under Captains WILCOX and George HERNDON. He received a Revolutionary voucher in Hillsboro District in 1781 and his widow later applied for a pension. (R-4789).

In 1786 Benjamin and Mary HAYGOOD purchased for 200 pounds sterling, 295 acres in Orange Co., N.C. from her parents, James and Elizabeth STEWART. Benjamin and Mary probably sold some of this land in 1787 (Bk.4, p.199). Another deed dtd. 12 DEC 1790 and recorded in Pittsboro, Chatham Co. (part of Orange Co. until 1771), N.C. shows that they sold the other 200 acres to William CRAIN. After this sale the family probably began their migration toward Jackson Co. (that part now being Clarke Co.), Ga. for we find that Benjamin purchased 820 acres of land on Barbers Creek on 13 JAN 1802 in Clarke Co. from Jacob BANKSTON.

(Note: The primary source of information that follows on the Descendants of Benjamin HAYGOOD, Sr. and Mary Ann STEWART is from a booklet entitled The HAYGOODS by Elizabeth Haygood Adams STOREY (Mrs. Edgar Harrison STOREY, Sr.) of Upson Co., Ga.).

Benjamin HAYGOOD was a founding member of Mars Hill Baptist Church, Athens, Clarke Co., Ga. (formerly Jackson Co.). The church has a large cemetery and a number of Haygoods with marked graves are buried there.

All of Benjamin and Mary's children were born in N.C. except for the youngest child, Benjamin, JR., who was born in Georgia. Most of the children's marriages are on record in Clarke or adjoining counties.

Benjamin HAYGOOD, Sr. was a large land owner in Clarke Co. and was listed on that county's first Grand Jury. Early censuses shows him in Watkinsville District where he owned 500 acres of land.

Benjamin and Mary (STEWART) HAYGOOD, Sr. are buried near the old homestead in the "Haygood-Stroud Cemetery", just off the Culloden- Forsyth road, Monroe Co., Ga.; or the Mars Hill Bapt. Ch. Cem., Oconee Co., Ga.

Children Include:

v. Elizabeth HAYGOOD b. 3 DEC 1788. d. 28 SEP 1879 m. 26 NOV 1807 in Clarke Co., Ga. to William FINLEY. She was buried in Macedonia Primitive Baptist Church Cemetery, Chambers Co., Ala. Her grave has a marker. She and her husband had moved to Monroe Co., Ga. and were shown there in the 1830 Census under William FINLEY as Head of Family being between 40 and 50 yrs. of age, his wife in the same age bracket. Also one male between 20-30; two males 15-20; one female 10-15 and one female 5-10. William FINLEY was listed in Capt. RUSSELL's Dist. Monroe Co. in 1834 along with Benjamin HAYGOOD. Benjamin was "agent" for Augustus H. FINLEY in giving in taxes in Monroe Co. in 1847 and 49. Elizabeth and her family removed to Chambers Co., Ala. prior to 1850.

He moved with his parents ca. 1776 to Ninety-Six District, S.C. The below paragraphs were written by Brigadier General Johnson HAGOOD, dtd. 1 NOV 1921: quote: "My Great-Grandfather, Johnson HAGOOD, was born in Virginia August 31st, 1772, died in Charleston, S.C., where he had gone for medical advice April 27, 1816, and is buried in the Second Presbyterian Churchyard. He was a very prominent lawyer in Charleston and the lower counties of South Carolina. His law partner, Robert Goodloe HARPER was author of the sentiment "Millions for defense but not a cent for Tribute". Mr. HARPER finally turned over his law business to Johnson HAGOOD and served with great distinction in the United States Senate. In 1806 Johnson HAGOOD moved from Charleston to Barnwell, S.C. where he established two plantations, one known as the 'Round O' in Colleton County and the other as 'Short Staple' near Barwell Village.

The following account of his marriage is quoted from "S.C. Marriages" by Salley on page 9: "On Wednesday evening Johnson HAGOOD, Esq., to Miss Nancy O'HEAR, daughter of Mr. James O'HEAR, both of this city. South Carolina Gazette and County Journal, Thursday, December 11th 1794."

"In addition to his accomplishments as a lawyer and a planter Johnson HAGOOD was one of the early experimenters in electricity and physics. An account of his life is found in O'Neals Bench & Bar of South Carolina, Appleton's Cyclopedia of American Biography Vol. III par. 26 and other Biographical Dictionaries." unquote.

INDENTURE between JAMES HAYGOOD (HAIGWOOD) #20 and Josh BURGESS.
Dated 5 MAR 1812 - Morgan County, Georgia

20. JAMES HAIGWOOD (13)

b. between 1781/1784 in South Carolina (probably Fairfield County). He was the son of Henry, Sr. and Frances "Fanny" HAIGWOOD. It is believed that he married Rebecca (or Harriet) HARRISON b. ca 1791 in Fairfield Co., the daughter of William H. HARRISON of that county. The HARRISON's were neighbors of his father, and William HARRISON attended the sale of the personal property of Henry after his death.

1790 Census Camden District, Fairfield Co., S.C. lists James numerically in his father's household as being under sixteen years of age (b. 1775 or later).

1800 Census Fairfield Co., S.C. again James is listed numerically in his father's home as being at least 16 and under 26 years of age (b. 1775-1784).

20 OCT 1808 a son Henry Harrison HAIGWOOD was born to James and his wife in Fairfield County, South Carolina.

1810 Census James was already married at the time this census was taken, however, he does not appear as Head of Family in Fairfield County. There is a James BAGWOOD listed in the census being 26 and under 45 (b. 1766-1784), he had sons who were over sixteen years of age. This appears to be too old to be our James. He could have already removed from South Carolina.

1805-1810 between these years James and his wife had two daughters born to them, perhaps in South Carolina. He may have removed to Georgia sometime between OCT 1808 and MAR 1812, for we find on...

daughters 10 and under 16 (b. 1805-1810).

14 NOV 1829 James HAYGOOD sold two parcels of land in Morgan Co., Ga. for $800.00 to Washington BABER. One tract containing 131 acres being the North West part of Lot No. 55 on "Waters of Haglers Creek". The other tract of land containing 84½ acres being part of Lot No. 42, all situated in the 19th Dist. of originally Baldwin Co. (now Morgan Co.). This was land that James HAYGOOD was actually living on at the time of the sale and adjoining the property of William MITCHELL, Henry DUKE and Alford BROWN. Witnesses to the sale were Peter CAMPBELL, William EDES and James PARNAL, J.P. Recorded on 24 JUN 1830 by John W. PORTER, Clerk. (Deed Bk. "I", no page number, Morgan Co., Ga.).

1830 Census Morgan Co., Ga. (apparently the part that did not become Newton County) James HAIGOOD was shown as Head of Family being 40 and under 50 (b. 1781-1790). His wife being shown as 30 and under 40 (b. 1791-1800). A son 20 and under 30 (b. 1801-1810); a son 15 and under 20 (b. 1811-1815) and one daughter 15 and under 20 (b. 1811-1815). It appears that his two older daughters had already married or had died since the previous census of 1820.

7 JAN 1832 James HAYGOOD for $312.00 bought 101¼ acres of land in Morgan Co., Ga. from the Estate of Conrad WALTZ, deceased of Newton Co., the administrator of the estate being William EDES. The property was known in the Land Lottery by Lot No. 132 in the 19th Dist. of originally Baldwin Co., now Morgan Co., Witnessed by Thomas ESPEY and Robert H. MARION, J.P. Recorded on 10 JAN 1832 by John W. PORTER, Clk. (Deed Bk. "I", p.242 Morgan County, Ga.).

3 MAY 1833 Newton County, Ga. (formerly a part of Morgan Co.) James' eldest son Henry Harrison HAIGWOOD at the age of 25 married Elizabeth Ann "Rebecca" WIMPEY (WIMPEE), daughter of John WIMPEY shown in the 1830 Census of Newton Co., Georgia.

1840 Census Limestone County, Alabama James HAIGWOOD was listed as Head of Family being 50 and under 60 (b. 1781-1790) with his wife 40 and under 50 (b. 1791-1800) and only one son in his household being 20 and under 30 (b. 1811-1820). There were six HAIGWOOD families in this county during the enumeration of this census, including an older James HAIGWOOD who was probably a first cousin, and the son of Elisha, Sr. (#15).

1850 Census researched intensely in Georgia and Alabama has failed to reveal the whereabouts of James HAIGWOOD. Had he died or moved westward with his son William and other members of the Haigwood Clan? Of the six Haigwood families located in Limestone Co., Ala. in 1840, not one family remained there in 1850.

1829 Elisha HAIGOOD, Jr. (the 3rd) and Elisha HAIGOOD, Sr. (Junior) were both listed as Head of Family in the Local Census. History of Fairfield County by McMASTER. 1830 Census Fairfield Co. Elisha HAIGGOD listed as Head of Family.

4 DEC 1835 Elisha HAGOOD to his brother Henry HAGOOD (the J.P.); Deed to 100 acres of land on which he was then living and which had been left to him in the Last Will of his father's. (Bk. HAIGOOD, being "blind at age 20, hereditary". A note at bottom of census page states that his father was blind at 20 years of age and Thos. went so at the same age - no cause known. He was also shown in the 1870C. same county at 51 living with an unmarried brother Robert, age 37 who was a teacher. Apparently Thomas never married.

The bible in 1971 was in the possession of Dr. A.C. HAGOOD of Johnson City, Tenn. (Dr. Hagood died 22 SEP 1983).

Henry was active in buying property in Fairfield Co. in 1826-27-28-31-37 and 38. He supposedly removed to Lowndes Co., Ala. in 1838. He is shown on several documents in Fairfield Co as a Justice of the Peace. His signature is available on documents.

1820 Census Fairfield Co. listed Henry HAYGOOD as Head of Family with wife, two sons, two daughters and eight slaves.

27 JAN 1826 Henry was listed as a son in the Last Will of Elisha HAIGOOD/HAYGOOD (App. #51-786 Bk. 10, p. 114 Fairfield Co.) He managed his father's estate for his mother after Elisha's death. When Henry d. in 1842 his son, William Rufus HAGOOD assumed his dad's responsibilities, including a note that had been made and renewed by Henry against his father's estate on 6 MAR 1838 and had taken another note on the estate on 3 JUN 1839. The loans in the amount of $315.89 and $206.29 were made with William Rufus, the son, and two of Henry's sons-in-law, Jesse H. ROBERTSON and Osmund L. DURHAM as security co-signers. On 24 FEB 1849 (at the time of final settlement of the estate after the death of Elizabeth Ann, the wife), records show that $48.50 was paid to J.H. COOK, Attorney at Law for the collection of the above notes in Alabama.

15 NOV 1827 Henry HAGOOD was given Power of Attorney by his sister, Cynthia and her husband Leonard SEITZ. (Bk. "KK", p.23 Fairfield Co.).

30. BUCKNER HAIGWOOD (the 2nd) (16)

b.1788 in Fairfield Co., S.C. son of Lewis HAIGWOOD, Sr. He was listed numerically in the household of his father in the 1790C. of Fairfield Co. He was named for his uncle who was listed in the 1790C. of Chester Co., S.C. He married after the 1810 Census Esther (or Hester) DUKE b. 1791. Buckner d. after 1860 and was bur. in the "HAIGOOD" burial ground located in the front yard of the house he built ca. 1810. The house was still standing and in perfect condition in 1977 in Blythewood, Richland Co., S.C. (formerly Doko, Fairfield Co.). He was a "Plantor". Spelling of his name has been found as HAIGOOD/HAYGOOD and HAIGWOOD (most often spelled HAIGOOD), thus far no record of it being spelled HAGOOD.

1810C. Fairfield Co. shows Buckner HAIGOOD as Head of Family being 16 and under 45 yrs. of age. There were no white males or females in his household, he did however, have eight (8) slaves. Indicating that he did not marry until after this census.

under 10 yrs. of age (b. after 1810) and one son under 10 years of age.

The below excerpts were taken from p. 26 of the booklet Blythewood Scrapbook published through the efforts of the Blythewood Garden Club during the nation's bicentenial year 1976. Appreciation is expressed to its members and especially the cooperation of the Treasurer, Mrs. J.E. McNINCH.

Quote: "Old Muller Place Home of Mr. and Mrs. W.K. EASTERLING (renting) by Margaret DuBARD. The main body of this house was built in the late 1700's supposedly in 1788 by Buckner HAGOOD. It passed from Buckner HAGOOD in the following order: John Calhoun HAGOOD, son of Buckner, to Eugenia HAGOOD, daughter of John Calhoun HAGOOD, to Dr. John J. ROBERTSON, then to Osmond MOORE who sold it to Lee MULLER of Calhoun County in 1909. It passed at his death to his son, George Frederick MULLER, who sold it in 1972 to Blythewood Properties. The Easterlings now live there.

The HAGOOD Cemetery is located in the front yard and it contains thirteen graves. Only one marker remains. It is that of Sallie HAGOOD, daughter of John Calhoun and Grace Taylor HAGOOD. She died at the age of fourteen.

The lovely house, so typical of up-country farm houses in early South Carolina commands a breathtaking view of the surrounding meadows and hills. This house was modernized and renovated during the time that G.F. MULLER and wife Catherine lived there...Information on the early history of the MULLER Home was provided by Lucy (MULLER) SMITH." unquote.

sponsibility of each person to whom additional information becomes available to update, correct and add to the information already collected. With this in mind, the following is offered:

The house in Blythewood, S.C. could not have been built by Buckner HAIGOOD as early as 1788 since he was not born until that year. In 1810 he would have been 22 years old, and with eight slaves at his disposal could have built the house shortly before 1810 preparing for his marriage after 1810. The house was built on land obtained by his father, Lewis HAIGWOOD, Sr., on 4 APR 1799 from Michael MUCKENFUSS, a cabinet maker from Charleston. (Deed Bk. "M", p.71 Fairfield Co., S.C.).

The burial plot in front of Buckner's home could rightfully be known as the HAIGOOD Cemetery since the only documented proof available in 1977 was the one remaining headstone of Sallie HAIGOOD (not HAGOOD). If the headstone had been read prior to writing the article that one mistake would not have been made. It is true that the families now living in the Blythewood area who are descendants of Buckner HAIGWOOD/HAIGOOD are now known as HAGOODs. The inscription on Sallie HAIGOOD's headstone is quoted below verbatum:

"Sallie daughter of Mr. J.C. & G.A. HAIGOOD who died January 28th 1864, Aged 15 years So fades the lovely blooming flower Frail, smiling solace of an hour, So soon our transient comforts fly, And a treasure only blooms to die." unquote. (Reference: See photographs taken of Sallie's headstone in 1977). She was the granddaughter of Buckner HAIGWOOD/HAIGOOD (the 2nd.).

24 DEC 1814 Buckner was named as a son in the Last Will of Lewis HAIGWOOD/HAIGOOD (spelled both ways). (Bk. "D" fol 240 or Fairfield Co. Estate Papers, Apt. #18-232 in the S.C. Archives, Columbia, S.C.).

28 SEP 1821 Buckner HAIGOOD was named as a brother and Executor in the Last Will of William HAIGOOD (Bk. 8, p. 110 or App. #20-253 Fairfield Co.).

26 FEB 1823 Buckner HAIGOOD to Rachel BURGE; Gift Deed (Bk. "DD", pp. 348-49 Fairfield Co., S.C.).

1823 Buckner HAIGOOD to Rachel PERRY; Gift Deed. Two children, Joseph and Elisa PERRY, are mentioned in this deed (Bk. "EE", p. 115 Fairfield Co.). Was Rachel BURGE/PERRY another daughter of Buckner HAIGOOD?

1829 Buckner HAIGOOD was shown in a Local Census of Fairfield Co. as Head of Family with eight free whites in his household (History of Fairfield County, South Carolina: from Before the White Man Came to 1942, p. 175 by Fitz Hugh McMASTER.

1830 Census Fairfield Co. shows Buckner HAIGOOD as Head of Family.

1836 Buckner HAYGOOD from Hugh BARKLEY S.F.D.; Sheriff Title (Bk. "MM", p. 96 Fairfield Co., S.C.).

1850 Census Fairfield Co. lists Buckner HAYGOOD age 62 Planter and Head of Family with $7700.00 Real-Estate value.

1860 Census Fairfield Co. shows B. HAIGOOD age 72 Plantor with $12,000. Real-Estate and $23,205.00 in personal property.

20 OCT 1808 - 26 JUN 1866

39. HENRY HARRISON HAIGWOOD (20)

b. Friday 20 OCT 1808 in Camden District, Fairfield Co., South Carolina. d. Tuesday 26 JUN 1866 in Jackson Co., Alabama. He was the son of James HAIGWOOD and Rebecca (Harriet?) HARRISON. He was married on Friday 3 MAY 1833 in Newton Co., Ga. (formerly a part of Morgan Co.) to Elizabeth Ann "Rebecca" WIMPEY (WIMPEE). She was born 18 FEB 1816 in Georgia, daughter of John and Martha? WIMPEY. At the age of 14 she was listed with her parents in the 1830 Census of Newton Co., Ga. After her husband's death she was shown in the 1870 Census of Jackson Co., Alabama as Head of the Family. In the 1880 Census she was shown living in the household of a son, James Leroy, in Johnson County, Arkansas.

1820 Census Morgan Co., Ga. shows Henry Harrison numerically in the household of his father, James HAYGOOD, listed as the only male child at 10 and under 16 yrs. of age, placing his year of birth between 1805 and 1810. Most of the dates on this family are taken from the "Haigwood Bible", originally belonging to Henry's son, Lewis Davis, a Baptist Minister. Photocopies of the bible were furnished by Royce HAIGWOOD of Batesville, Arkansas.

1830 Census Morgan Co., Ga. again lists him numerically as being 20 and under 30 yrs. of age and still in his father's, James HAIGOOD, home. This would have been at the age of 22 and three years before his marriage.

1850 Census Floyd Co., Ga. he is listed as Henry HAGERWOOD in Rome, Ga. Sub-Div. 30 Head of Family and a farmer at the age of 42. His wife and eight children are named in his household.

1860 Census Jackson Co., Ala. he is listed as H.H. HAGWOOD, farmer, with his wife and some of his issue. The last person named under his family was Sarah, age 18, b. 1842 in Tenn., she was a daughter-in-law, the wife of the eldest son, William Matthew, who, for some reason was not listed on the census. Sarah Ellen (Elizabeth?) BROOM was of part Indian blood. 1870 Census Jackson Co., Ala. Henry Harrison had died and his wife Elizabeth HAIGWOOD was listed as Head of Family with Post Office at William's Store. Six of her children were still with her. A child, Betsy A., two years of age was in her household. This was the daughter of her son William Matthew and Sarah (BROOM) HAIGWOOD.

At the time of the 1860 Census Henry Harrison and his family were located on 12 JUL in Coffeetown, Div. #1. There is no Coffeetown in Jackson Co. today. Much of this area was covered with water when the Guntersville Dam was constructed. It has been reported that some, if not all, of the cemeteries were removed prior to flooding. The remains of Henry Harrison could very possibly be in one of the relocated cemeteries of Jackson Co. Elizabeth bore H.H. at least 14 children. After her husband's death and prior to 1880 Elizabeth made the journey by covered wagon with some of her sons to Arkansas and was located in the home of her son, James Leroy, in the 1880 Census of Johnson Co., Ark. One family source reports that Henry Harrison had been a teacher, this has not been proven and is very doubtful. His wife was reported on the 1870 Census as being illerterate. Henry Harrison probably was a country preacher and several of his sons became well known Baptist ministers.

vii. John Ashley HAIGWOOD (The Rebel Soldier) b. 27 FEB 1845 in Rome, Floyd Co., Ga. d. 5 MAY 1865 Jackson Co., Ala. He was never married. John was shown on the 1850C. Floyd Co., Ga. Sub-Div. 30 No.735 and also on the 1860C. Jackson Co., Ala. Div. #1, Post Office at Coffee Town, pp. 104-105. Family #710-711. His name did not appear in the 1870 Census. Without a doubt this is the same John HAIGWOOD of whom Mrs. Bertha C. KIRBY (a professional family researcher from Jackson Co.) wrote to the compiler in 1966. According to Mrs. KIRBY the "Old Haigwood Baptist Church" and the "Haigwood Cemetery" in Jackson Co., Ala., about five miles south of Macedonia, were named for John HAIGWOOD, a rebel soldier, killed in 1865. He was the first person to be buried in the "Haigwood Cemetery". The church and cemetery are shown on the present date county maps. Many of the Haigwood descendants have now visited this land mark. His grave marker is the only one in the cemetery bearing the name of Haigwood. The hand-carved grave marker of sandstone reads: "JOHN. HAIGWooD/ A. REBBEL/ SOLDIER/ KILLED. 1865/ FIRST. PERSON/ BURIED. HERE/ ERECTED/ BY/ J.D. DUKE. &/ J.L. WILBON." The graves of these men are nearby. The DUKE family may have been some relation to the (Robert?)

on a visit to the "Old Haigwood Baptist Church" ca. 1970. The Haigwood Cemetery is across the road from the church.

DUKE who married Courtney HAIGWOOD in Fairfield Co., S.C. prior to 1826. She was the daughter of Elisha HAIGWOOD, Sr.

John HAIGWOOD, as the story goes, was "killed in ambush" during the Civil War in a 'hollow' (dates will show that he was actually killed shortly after the surrender was signed) just below and beyond the present location of the 'Old Haigwood Baptist Church' and was taken up the hill and buried across the road from where the church was later built. This area became known as the "Haigwood Community" and the building was first used as a school house and community meeting hall, later becoming a church. It was also the 'Haigwood Voting Precinct' as verified by advertisement in the 1895 Scottsboro Citizen (newspaper) placed by the Tax Collector of Jackson Co. The Haigwood Community or church and cemetery is located about 5 miles south of Macedonia. It is possible that John's father, Henry Harrison HAIGWOOD, may have been buried in a nearby unmarked grave. One researching descendant wrote in 1978 that "John HAIGWOOD and his friend were out in the yard, when a Union Patrol came by and shot both of them. John died but his friend lived to kill every one of them. The last one was killed in Dallas, Texas on December 24, 1899 in a saloon." (??)

John's full name and dates of birth and death were found in the "Haigwood Bible" belonging to his brother, Lewis Davis HAIGWOOD. John was 20 years of age when he was killed. On a visit to the cemetery in 1977 the compiler was told by a local resident that only two weeks earlier former Governor CONNALLY of Texas had also visited the cemetery where supposedly his grandparents or great grandparents were buried. On Tuesday, 2 AUG 1966 in the Scottsboro newspaper there appeared an article regarding the burial of a Cpl. Paul CHAMBERS, USMC who had been killed on 15 JUL 1966 in Viet Nam. He was to be buried with "military rites at Haigwood Church Cemetery".

The "Haigwood Cemetery" is shown on the General Highway Map of Jackson County, Alabama dated 1960.

Marriage Record 1861-72: "Luvana Angeline HAIGWOOD age 18 married William A. BARNETT age 27 by N.P. JONES on 30 JUL 1871". The following was received from a family researcher in 1978: "No known knowledge of Louvanna, except my father seem to think that she had joined a Mormon Sect and married a man who had several other wives, and the children of the families had been told that she had been killed by the Indians. I don't know if there is any truth in any of this or not, but I was in the Taxi Cab business at Yountville, California in 1947, after being discharged from the Air Force, and I met a man named Bill HAND from Oregon who said his mother's maiden name was Louvanna HAIGWOOD and they called her "Rose"." unquote. Is it possible that William A. BARNETT later became the husband of her niece, Betsy Ann HAIGWOOD?, da.of Wm. Matthew?

Dr DANIEL HAGOOD.

Last Wednesday (Jan. 6)th when Dr Dan Hagood of Mt Willing laid aside the worn out habiliments of life, as honest, as incorrupt and incorruptible a soul as was ever cast in human mould went up to the Great Grand Master of the Universe to be tried by the square of eternal justice and by the plumb that made the mountains erect.

His age and the place of his birth the writer don't know, but he must have seen the whirling away of a half century or more and we think it must have been upon Alabama's generous soil that he was born.

After reaching manhood he taught school in South Lowndes several years But the profession which fable teaches us Jupiter regarded as paramount to all others was not so congenial to the subject of this sketch as that one which claims Hippocrates as its founder. He therefore became an honorable member of the medical profession and despised him right heartily who through cupidity, sought to debase it

While proud of the profession to which through inclination he had attached himself, it is the opinion of the writer that he derived his highest happiness from general reading and his own reflections thereon.

He was possessed of considerable learning and a memory which had little treachery, but his modesty was a barrier between his real worth and all except the little world which held his intimates. In early manhood he became a mason and by the principles of this ancient and respectable order doubtless greater strenght was given those rugged virtues which through the beneficenceof Diety were givenhim in the twilight of life's morning When the Confederacy began its perilous voyage, Dr Hagood was among the first to draw his sword in defense of a cause deemed just. He married the widow of Dr Hensley and from this union he leaves two children a son and daughter. The widow also survives. For a long while after the war he lived at Braggs where he has a of admiring friends. He was never broad-shouldered nor deep breasted and it was about a year ago that he became cofined to his room and the end was apparent. He knew and felt that he must soon die but he faced the inevitable with firmness and when the last paralytic stroke came, he went out into the unknowable as a conqueror.

MT. WILLING.

At a called communication of Mt Willing Lodge No 471 the following resolutions were adopted :-

Whereas, it has pleased God through the dispensations of Divine Providence to remove from our midst our worthy Brother Daniel Hagood from a transitory to a state of eternal duration, and while we bow with humble submission to the will of Divine Providence we can not resist the deep feeling of sorrow and sadness that fills our hearts at the removal of one who had endeared himself to us by the exemplification of so many virtues worthy of emulation, and who had filled every relation in life with so much credit. As a physician, he was attentive, conscientious, able and efficient, as a soldier, fearless in his devotion to duty and the cause of right. And as a citizen, he was quiet and unobtrusive, shielding with the mantle of charity the faults of others. His name was the synonym of honor and his counsels that of wisdom and moderation.

Resolved 1st: That in the death of our brother, the community sustains the loss of aureful, citizen his family a kind and considerate husband and father and our lodge one of its ablest supports.

2nd: That we extend to the disconsolate widow and her family our heart felt sympathy and condolence in their bereavement.

3rd: That our Lodge wear the usual badge of mourning for 30 days, and a page on our minutes be dedicated to his memory.

4th: That a copy of these resolutions be forwarded to the family of our deceased brother and to the Citizen-Examiner for publication.

b. 1819/20/21 Fairfield Co., S.C. Son of Buckner HAIGWOOD (the 2nd.) and Esther DUKE. He m. ca. 1848 Grace A. TAYLOR b. 1830/34 in Richland Co., S.C. They are both probably buried with their daughter, Sallie, in the front yard of his father's home in Blythewood, Richland Co., S.C. (formerly part of Fairfield Co.) The 1850C. of Fairfield Co. shows John HAYGOOD, his wife Gracy A. and their daughter Sallie living with John's father and family (Buckner HAYGOOD) Dwelling #1065 Family #1066. Census taken on 21 OCT 1850. On the death of his father John inherited his home. He in turn left it to his daughter Eugenia. The 1860C. Fairfield Co. shows J.C. HAIGOOD age 39, Planter with $1000. in Real Estate with his wife and three children still in or next to his father, Buckner's, household. The 1870C. of the same county shows him as Head of Family, age 50, a farmer with $5000. Real-Estate and $965. in personal property. His wife and four children were in his household.

Children Include:

i. Sallie HAIGOOD b. SEP 1849. d. 28 JAN 1864 in Doko, Fairfield Co., S.C. (now Blythewood, Richland Co.) She was bur. in the front yard of the old homestead. Her headstone was the only marker remaining on the burial ground in 1977 although it was completely broken at the base. See a full description of her stone under her grandfather's write-up (#30).

ii. William HAIGOOD b. 1852.

She never married and inherited the family home from her father. She was the last of the family line to live in the house. Supposedly, Eugenia refused to sell the "old Buckner HAIGWOOD home" to any member of the HAIGOOD/HAGOOD Clan, instead, she sold it to Dr. John J. ROBERTSON. This information was obtained from John Franklin HAGOOD of Blythewood. As evidenced by her headstone, Eugenia C. HAGOOD, or the person carving the stone, had not only dropped the "W", but also the "I"from her grandfather's name as spelled in the 1790 Census.

90. iv. John Allen HAIGOOD/HAGOOD b. 1858.

v. James HAGOOD b. 1862.

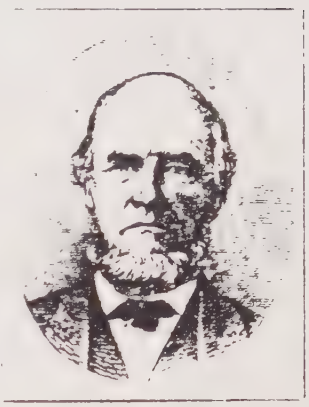
FRANCIS MARION HAYGOOD.



Rev. FRANCIS MARION HAYGOOD is a good and useful man, and one whose long life in the Saviour's service has been more than usually laborious and beneficial. He was born in 1817, in what is now Oconee but which was then Clarke county. He enjoyed common country school advantages only, in early life. He professed religion in 1835, and commenced preaching in 1840. In order to prepare himself better for his ministerial functions, he spent the years 1840 and 1841 in the theological department of Mercer University. In 1842 he was united in matrimony to Miss Louisa A. Born, thus securing a faithful helpmeet and most efficient companion, whose accomplishments, devotional character and pious zeal, have greatly aided and sustained him.

Mr. Haygood's life has been one of great diversity of pursuit and incident. Much—perhaps most—of his life has been passed in the useful occupation of a colporter and book-agent; and, as such, few men are his superiors. For many years he was employed by the American Tract Society for the sale of its publications, in which he was greatly successful, and by which he accomplished an amount of good that the Judgment day only will reveal. Many a tract or book donated by him has resulted in the salvation of a soul, and many an individual with whom he has engaged in personal effort of a religious nature, has professed conversion as the result.

At different times in his life Mr. Haygood has been the pastor of various churches in Georgia, and, in his evangelistic and Sunday-school labors has, perhaps, travelled more miles and preached more sermons than any other Baptist minister in the State. Noted as a Sunday-school man, he has produced great and beneficial results by his many entertaining Sunday-school lectures. A strong advocate of temperance, he has frequently advocated his views in public addresses.

He has, as pastor, served churches in the towns of Macon, Sparta and Jefferson, and, during the last forty years, has preached and lectured on an average three times a week. In his preaching he is plain and simple, and presents the truths of the Gospel plainly and clearly. Always extemporizing, he has never written his sermons, his plan being to analyze his subject and take into the pulpit a skeleton embracing the heads and subdivisions of his text, from which he delivers his discourse.

The first sermon preached in Atlanta, after the name was altered from Marthasville, was preached by him, by appointment, in July, 1846, when the place was merely a little railroad village, with but one public house, which answered for church, school-house, court-house, railroad office and public meeting-house.

For five or six years Mr. Haygood was the efficient Corresponding Secretary and Agent of the Georgia Baptist Bible and Colporter Society, residing at Macon, and successfully conducting a large denominational book store.

He is a man of great firmness and conscientiousness, undeviating in principle and of unimpeachable integrity. In social life he is exceedingly polite, affable and hospitable. Two sons were the fruit of his marriage, one of whom still survives; the other having yielded up his life in Virginia during our late struggle, a sacrifice for Southern independence. He is at present engaged as an agent and colporter by the American Tract Society, and preaches whenever an opportunity is afforded.

FEB 26 1950 N.C

As soldier and statesman, John son Hagood dedicated a distinguished career to the South a his native state of South Carolin

He was born in Barnwell coun February 21, 1828, of a family English extraction which had se tled originally in Virginia. H grandfather, for whom he wa named, was a prominent lawyer Charleston, and his father, D James O. Hagood, was a plante and practiced medicine in Barn well for more than 50 years.

Hagood was educated at Rich mond academy, in Augusta, an at the Citadel. He was graduate from the Citadel in November, 184 at the top of his class.

When the War Between th States broke out, he was a briga dier-general of militia, and wa quickly elected a colonel of th South Carolina volunteers. Some what later, he was transferred t the Confederate states army, an was promoted to brigadier general

He took part in the bombard ment of Fort Sumter in April, 1861 the first battle of Manassas (Bull Run), the battle of Secessionville defense of Fort Wagner and opera tions on James island.

In May, 1864, he was ordered with his command to Petersburg, Va., where he met and repulsed a vastly superior advance force under General B. F. Butler. Later, under Generals Beauregard and Lee, his command fought outstandingly in the operations at Bermuda Hundreds at the siege at Petersburg.

In the fighting on the Weldon Road, after his own horse had been shot from under him, General Hagood shot a Union officer who had seized the colors of the 11th regiment, mounted the Union offficer's horse, and withdrew his men from an enemy pocket. His orderly, Private J. D. Stoney, picked up the fallen colors, and was subsequently given a commission.

(Before the shooting, General Hagood had demanded that the Union officer surrender the colors. This the Union officer refused to do. Years later, the general, by furnishing a statement of facts about the case, was instrumental in obtaining a pension from the federal government for the man he had wounded.)

After fighting for some time in North Carolina, Hagood eventually surrendered with General Johnston at Greensboro. At that time, only 499 veterans, including himself and his staff, remained of the 4,500 which had entered the war.

In 1871, he became a delegate to the state taxpayers' convention, which exposed many of the corrupt financial deals of the Reconstruction government. Later, as a member of a committee investigating the bank of the state of South Carolina, other frauds were exposed.

He was nominated in 1876 on the Democratic ticket for comptroller general of the state, and contributed greatly, in the exciting "Red Shirt" election campaign which followed, to the overthrow of currupt radical rule.

During the uncertain and perilous time between the election in November, 1876, and the recognition of the Hamilton government by President Hayes, when any movement might have precipitated a collision between the rival parties, Governor Hampton called only two of the state officers to his regular assistance — General Hagood and Attorney General James Connor," says the "Cyclopedia of Eminent and Representative Men of the Carolinas of the Nineteenth Century."

He was re-elected comptroller general in 1878, and elected governor in 1880. When he left that office in 1882, The News and Courier said:

"Governor Hagood takes with him into private life the cordial respect of his fellow citizens. They had always admired him for his qualities as a soldier; and now they admire him, in addition, for fidelity and ability in the discharge of complex and weighty duties, both as comptroller general and governor of the state."

The above news-clipping from The News and Courier was furnished by Colonel JOHNSON HAGOOD, Jr. U.S. Army, Retired. The son of Major - General JOHNSON HAGOOD U.S. Army, and the great-nephew of the Gov. of South Carolina and Brigadier-General JOHNSON HAGOOD of the C.S.A.

An interesting story about Rebecca Haigwood LAND and her family came to light in a letter of FEB 1942 from "Aunt Mac" the 2nd. wife of Starnes HAIGWOOD (#77), a brother of Rebecca. The letter was to a nephew, Edward Lafayette HAIGWOOD and his wife Margaret. Margaret in turn wrote the following to her daughter. Quote: "We got an unexpected letter today with strange exciting news about one of daddy's aunts - Aunt Rebecca Haigwood LAND. The letter to daddy was from Aunt Mac, Katie HAIGWOOD's step-mother. She had received a letter from one of daddy's cousins, a W.L. HAIGWOOD of the state of Washington. He is with the army in Alaska, somewhere, and had met a man by the name of LAND, also in the army. This Mr. LAND proved himself to be one of Aunt Rebecca's sons or grandsons, I don't know which. He said one of Aunt Rebecca's boys, W.L. LAND, lived in Yakima, Washington. Here is the strange part of it. Aunt Rebecca Haigwood LAND was your grandpa HAIGWOOD's sister. She and her husband, James Reuben LAND, were married in Alabama in 1853. In the spring of 1869, a wagon train of people from various parts of several states east of the Mississippi River, was made up to go west to Oregon. The LANDS decided they would go too. They were to meet at Ft. Scott, Kansas. Well, Aunt Rebecca's family got to Ft. Scott just 15 days too late after the train had gone, for which, they later were very thankful, because the whole wagon train was Massacred by a band of Black-Foot Indians. And no one, that is none of the kinfolks knew until this letter came from Alaska a few days ago, that Aunt Rebecca's family were not with the train, or that any member of her family was living. They stayed in Kansas a couple of years, then in Missouri somewhere for awhile. Later in 1872 they joined another wagon train and made a successful trip to Moscow, Idaho. But with their eyes still on Oregon they made another start in 1898 and reached Cottage Grove in Oregon. Her husband died there in 1916 and Aunt Rebecca died in, I can't figure out the town, Oregon in 1917. Aunt Mac answered the letter and wrote to W.L. LAND in Yakima, Washington, to ask if these things were true. He wrote back that they were - that he was a son of Rebecca Haigwood LAND. He is the one who wanted (wondered) where your Great Grandmother (Elizabeth WIMPEY HAIGWOOD) is buried. We don't know; but think it is near Webb City, south of Ozark. She was visiting her brothers in this state when she died. What a pity this could not have been learned before "Daddy" HAIGWOOD, Uncle Holmes, and Uncle Starnes and all the others passed on. They always grieved over what they thought was her horrible death. A strange bit of history, don't you think? Like a story from a book." Unquote.

On 15 JUL 1978 this compiler was contacted by phone by Mrs. Geneva (GIBBS) BARRY of Indian Valley, Idaho. She is the great grand-daughter of Rebecca Caroline (HAIGWOOD) LAND and practically all the information on Rebecca's descendants from this point on in this book was graciously furnished to the author by Mrs. BARRY. A total of 96 Family Group Sheets were compiled on this family line, not bad for a family that had supposedly been wiped-out by an Indian attack in 1869!!

It fought at Baker's Creek in Buford's Brigade, Loring's Division and lost considerably. It shared in the fighting at Jackson and the subsequent operations in Mississippi. As part of Scott's Brigade, the regiment was attached to the Army of Tennessee in the spring of 1864. It surrendered at Greensboro, North Carolina, under Colonel SNODGRASS...s/ Peter A. BRANNON." unquote.

Elisha Norman's widow, Nancy Jane, on her application for a pension stated that her husband had enlisted in the Confederate service in June 1861 in Jackson Co., Ala. His brother, William Matthew, in his statement said that Elisha had joined the army in Larkenville, Ala. William Matthew had served in the same unit as Elisha but was home on furlough in Jackson Co. when the Battle of Vicksburg had taken place.

After receiving his prisoner of war parole (he was never exchanged) Elisha returned for a short period to Jackson Co., Ala. and then with his wife and two young children, Mary M. and William E., moved to Nashville, Davidson Co., Tenn. They were living in Nashville when the South surrendered. A third child, Sarah J., was born there in 1866. Sometime before 1870 they had returned to Stevenson, Jackson Co., Ala. where two more sons were born, John in 1870 and James Washington HAIGWOOD in August 1872.

Elisha Norman was listed as Elisha HAIGWOOD at age 27 and Head of Family in the 1 JUN 1870 Census of Stevenson, Jackson Co., Ala. In 1873 he moved his family to Chattooga Co., Ga., probably Summerville, where on 19 JUN 1880 he was listed as being 37 years of age, a farmer and Head of Family with his wife and eight children still remaining with him. Three of his children, John, James and Ellen, were shown with Typhoid Fever. His son William, at seventeen, was shown as working on the farm and his fourteen year old daughter, Sarah, was shown as a domestic servant. Between mid-1880 and 1901 they had probably returned to Alabama. In 1901 or 1902 they again moved back to Georgia, this time settling in a log cabin in Chattooga County and buying "two town lots in Meno, Ga.". Just prior to November 1908 they had been "burned out". At the time of his death in 1909 they still owned the two town lots.

Elisha Norman HAIGWOOD died at the age of 66 yrs. 5 mos. and 6 days in Walker Co., Ga., probably in Lafayette, while on a visit to a daughter's (which one?). He was buried in the Mt. Olive Cemetery (what county?). His wife Nancy Jane continued to live in Menlo after his death for at least the years of 1910-11 and 12.

On 1 AUG 1910 in Chattooga Co., Ga. Nancy Jane HAIGWOOD filed an 'Application for Pension by a Widow Under Act of 1910'. This pension was disapproved on 20 OCT 1910. A hand written note on the cover of the application reads: "Pension Officer Oct 25, 1911 Applicant fails to date (or state?) & prove ___?___ an absence (?) of her husband from his command and account for him honorably to the close of the war as required by law to receive this pension. s/ J.W. LINDSEY, Commissioner of Pensions".

(Note: This pension would not have been disapproved had Nancy Jane known what records were available, especially the Prisoner of War form, and how to obtain them. In 1910 the records were not as easily acquired as they are today, more than eighty years later.)

It is not known whether the pension was ever approved, but one thing for sure is that Nancy Jane did not give up too easily upon hearing that her application had been disapproved. There are at least two letters on file in the Georgia State Archives written in her own hand that will prove this point. The letters below are quoted and spelled verbatum:

Charles Lewis, Edward Lafayette and Frances Paralee were not married at the time this picture was taken.

The 1870C. of Dodsonville, Jackson Co., Ala. listed George W. HAIGWOOD as Head of Family with his wife and a one year old son, John W. The occupation for George was listed as "farm laborer".

In the fall of 1880 he, with his wife and their six or seven shildren (it is not known whether their daughter Eva J. had d. in Ala. before they departed or died while on the journey) left from "Gunter's Landing" in Ala. heading West in a covered wagon to join his brothers, Lewis Davis, Starnes, James Leroy and his mother Elizabeth and the youngest brother, Henry Holmes, who were living with James Leroy. All of these were already living in Johnson and Independence Counties, Ark. at the time of the 1880 Census. George and his family may have been delayed in making the trip earlier with other members of his family due to the expected birth of the daughter Eva J, on 11 AUG 1880. The family of George has not been located in either the Ala. or Ark. Census of 1880. They arrived and settled in Clarksville, Johnson Co., Arkansas in 1880 or 1881.

The following records (among others) belonging to George W. HAIGWOOD were found in the attic of his son, Charles Lewis, after the son's death:

In Testimony Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and seal, this 19th day of November, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety eight. s/ H.C. MORRISON Done at Morriston, Ark.".

The above certificate was filed for record on 23 NOV 1898 in Book "A" page 29 Record of Ministers Credentials by D.N. CLARK, Clerk (Johnson County, Arkansas?).

HAIGWOOD to four of his children: "To John, Ed, Charles & Parelee: I request that you collect my policy deduct the amount you have furnished me to keep the policy paid up with interest. Fairview Cemetery in Shawnee. McHenry (SMITH) HAIGWOOD was "a natural born artist and herb doctor", according to a grandson.

Starnes was listed as a four year old in the home of his parents on the 1 JUN 1860C. in Coffeetown, Jackson Co., Ala. In the 1870C. Jackson Co. he was listed as being 14 yrs. old in his mother's house. Prior to 1873, at about the age of seventeen, he moved with other members of his family to Ark. He was located in the 1880C. of Johnson Co., Ark. with his wife and a five month old son. He later moved to Oklahoma.

Quoting from a letter received in 1978 from Pauline L. SKINNER, a granddaughter of Starnes: "Strange as it may sound, we hardly knew our grandfather, Starnes. We were reared to be seen and not heard and I cannot remember a conversation with my grandfather. I remember how he looked but little else. My Dad tells me he could read and write and was smart in his 'sums'. Starnes was a private person. He was head of the house and a strict task master. However, I do remember his sayings which showed great insight into human nature and frailities. His word was his bond and he worked hard. He sprouted a handle-bar moustache." unquote.

Another letter received in 1978 from Don Michael HAIGWOOD, a grandson of Starnes is quoted in part: "Grandfather Starns died when I was 5 years old and I cannot remember much about him except his funeral. My father, Jake, talked about him quite a bit. It seemed as though he was never very happy in a place for very long. I know he came to Pink, Okla. in 1894 and built a home there. It was still standing in 1965, and in that year, it was sold to Lyle H. BOREN, our Governor's father. Uncle Bob

He became a Bishop in the Methodist Church and in 1875 succeeded Osborn SMITH as President of Emory at Oxford, sixteen years after he had graduated from the college. President HAYGOOD accomplished a great deal for the college through internal organization and a great deal of publicity. His Thanksgiving sermon in the Oxford

Methodist Church on 25 NOV 1880 relating how evil slavery had been and now with its abolition the South faced a bright future. A printed copy of this sermon came to the attention of a New York banker, George I. SENEY, who later donated approximately $130,000. to the small college. Before his retirement in 1884 President Atticus Greene HAYGOOD had increased Emory's endowment to almost one hundred thousand dollars thereby assuring the future of the college. This small college in a small town (Oxford) and still in operation is also the fore-runner of the large and celebrated Emory University in Atlanta, Ga. where today the institution boast among its staff members a former President of the United States, Jimmy CARTER.

There are a number of books by and about the life of Atticus Greene HAYGOOD and to go into details on his life in this book would only be duplicating what has already been well documented.

135. JOHNSON HAGOOD (Sr.) "The General" (70)

b. 16 JUN 1873 Orangeburg, Orangeburg Co., S.C. Son of Lee HAGOOD, Sr. and Kathleen Rosa TOBIN. He was the fourth to bear the name of Johnson. He m. Jean Gordon SMALL on 14 DEC 1899. She was b. 14 JUN 1879 in Charleston, S.C., daughter of James H. SMALL from Farforshire, Scotland.

Johnson HAGOOD graduated from West Point and was Chief of Staff of Supply Service of the U.S. Army in France during World War I. He retired as Brigadier General. An account of his military record is shown in Cullum's Register of Graduates of the United States Military Academy, Who's Who in America and other biographical works. He also authored Meet Your Grandfather. Much of the information in this book is derived from rough notes made by Gen. Johnson on his family in 1920. The paragraph below was written by him at that time:

Quote: "That winds up the direct line. Of my father's brothers only one, Gen. Johnson HAGOOD (CSA), had a son. That son, Butler, now living at Barnwell, S.C. (1920) has one son, Johnson, who is unmarried. So you see there is no one in South Carolina by the name of HAGOOD nearly related to you. There are a few related through the brothers of your great grandfather, Dr. James O'Hear HAGOOD, and most of these live in Barnwell, though some have moved to other parts of the country. There is a family of HAGOODs living in Charleston who are no relation to you, the family of Mr. Ben A. HAGOOD, a prominent lawyer and a friend of mine. He is undoubtedly descended from some of the other HAGOODs mentioned in the Census of 1782(?). Most likely they were related to each other, but the earliest record in our branch of the family is to the effect they are not related. His grandfather, Colonel Benjamin HAGOOD, was an old time Whig and a supporter of Clay and Harrison. His wife, a Miss AMBLER, was, through the the female line, a granddaughter of William HAGOOD (here he is referring to William HAGUEWOOD in the 1790 Census of S.C.), your ancestor, but in the old bible opposite the notice of this marriage is the notation "no relation"." unquote. It is believed that the above was written by Gen. Johnson to a daughter.

Unfortunately, General Johnson HAGOOD did not have at his disposal all the facilities for genealogical research that is available today. If research had not been so difficult, then perhaps in 1920, he could have connected the relationship of most, if not all, of the HAGOODs and other spellings of the name in South Carolina as well as those in many other locations throughout the United States. With each succeeding generation the families seem to explode making the task more complex and no one person or family can keep tract of all the other family lines. Regrettable as it may be, there are people today who cannot tell you who their grandfathers were.
Children Include:

i. Jean HAGOOD b. 10 NOV 1900 Charleston, S.C. m. 11 MAY 1921 to Lt. James L. HOLLOWAY, Jr. USN. James HOLLOWAY became an Admiral of the U.S. Navy and at one time was the Chief of Naval Operations.

19 JUN 1880. On that date three of their children had Typhoid Fever.

In 1882, at the age of nine, James moved with his parents to LaFayette, Walker County, Georgia. From all accounts on hand he was probably still living in LaFayette sixteen years later when he married Hattie JENNINGS of Summerville, Georgia whom he had known while a young boy and living in that town with his parents. They were married on 3 FEB 1898 in Valley Head, DeKalb Co., Ala., a short distance across the state line from Summerville, Ga. and about five miles from Mentone, Ala. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. J.M. WHITE, Minister of the Gospel. The marriage license was issued on 31 JAN 1898 by the Judge of Probate who spelled James' name as HIGHWOOD, on four other places on the certificate after the marriage had been solemnized the name was spelled "HAIGHWOOD". This marriage license is on file in the Office of the Judge of Probate, DeKalb County, Alabama in (Marriage Record "F", p. 40.)

James and Hattie remained in Walker Co., Ga., where their first two children were born, at least through the year 1901. In 1902 or 1903 they removed to Union County, Kentucky where a third child was born on 1 JUN 1903. The reason for the move to Kentucky is not fully understood and it was short-lived for the records show that the family was once again in the Alabama-Georgia area by 1905. A fourth child was born to them on 10 APR 1905 in Mentone, DeKalb Co., Ala. Sometime during the next two years they had moved again. This move was only a short distance across the state line and in MAR 1907 were located in Menlo, Chattooga County, Georgia. They remained in Menlo until 1911 when James Washington moved his family for the last time to Rome, Floyd County, Georgia, the birthplace of his father, Elisha Norman.

When James first moved to Rome he was working as a carpenter and he often related how he had worked on the Shorter College buildings in this town. He probably decided to move to Rome after visiting his older brother, John F., who was already established in business there. During the visit he perhaps learned that his skill as a carpenter could be used. After moving to Rome he also worked part-time in his brother's watch and clock repair shop during the next two years where he became a natural craftsman in this field, an occupation at which he would spend the rest of his life and with his eldest son, Reuben Elbert HAIGWOOD, following his steps.

A month after his ninth child was born, James at the age of forty-one, must have been thinking of a way to better provide for his growing family, for on 23 JUL 1913 he bought the small watch and jewelry repair shop from his brother. This shop was located at 413½ Broad Street, Rome's main street. The shop was affectionately known for many years as the "hole in the wall" because of its size. In simple gold leaf lettering on the small window was "J.W. HAIGWOOD - WATCH REPAIRING". For many years there was a sign in metal of a large pocket watch which extended out over the sidewalk. This old fashioned watch also had his named painted on it.

On 19 MAY 1917 the United States adopted a selective-service act requiring all men between the age of twenty-one and thirty to register for the draft. James was exempted from registering because of his age, therefore no registration card is on file for him in the Federal Records Center.

During the 1920s the Haigwoods not only operated the small jewelry shop, but they also owned and operated a restuarant around the corner from the repair shop on West Fifth Avenue, in the first block between the County Court House and Broad Street. James or "Jim" as he was known by his many friends, was a good business man and by the early twenties had acquired a great deal of property in the North Rome area, including his "big house on the hill" which became his permanent home at 105 Euclid Avenue until his death.

Most of his North Rome properties were sold off, one piece at a time, during the depression years. Some were disposed of to settle debts of some of his children. He held on to his "big house" but sold the restuarant in the late twenties or early thirties. He continued to operate the watch and clock repair shop in its original location until the late 1930's when Montgomery-Ward selected Rome as the site for one of its outlets. Several buildings, including the one in which James had his shop, had to be torn down to make way for the new and large building which would house Montgomery-Ward.

Almost from the time that James had purchased the repair shop his eldest son, Reuben Elbert, had been interested in watch repair and as a child was with his dad constantly, learning the trade. He became a partner with his father in the business and remained with him until his father's death, except for three short stays while working as a watch repairman elsewhere. When they had to vacate the "hole in the wall" they moved to the west side of Broad Street in the "Cotton Block" of downtown Rome. This location did not prove to be very satisfactory and a short time later found the two Haigwood watchmakers on upper Broad Street in the 500 block near the DeSoto Theater. In November 1938 they again moved their business to No. 5 West Fourth Avenue, a half block off Broad Street, in the Barry WRIGHT, Sr. Building. This was to be the last place of business for James Washington HAIGWOOD before his death in 1940.

James could have been described as a very "Dapper-Dan" type man. He was tall, slender and a distinguished looking gentleman who wore a heavy, but neatly trimmed moustache. He was impeccable in his manner of dress and well groomed at all times, especially in his later years of life. During the proper season he could be seen with his spotless grey spats, black velvet trimmed topcoat and carrying a walking cane (for appearance only) or else an umbrella. A true "Southern Gentleman" in every respect of the term, and definitely a "lady's man". A further description of James would be that he was a quiet and easy-going individual with a genuine genteel disposition. He was a good provider for his family, quite a large family it was too, and gave them more, including money to waste, than most families of smaller size and larger income would normally have done during those tough days of the "Great Depression". As the old saying goes he may have "done too much for their own good".

On Armistice Day, 11th day of November 1940 James Washington HAIGWOOD died in his sixty-eighth year and third month of life. He died at his residence "the big house on the hill", 105 Euclid Avenue, Rome, Floyd Co., Ga. He expired at 1:20 A.M. according to the death certificate (1:15 A.M. in the Rome News-Tribune article) following an "extended" illness. The primary cause of death was listed by his physician, Dr. J.C. POWELL, Jr., of the Harbin Hospital Staff, as Bronchiogemi Carcinoma.

Funeral and burial arrangements were made through the J.W. JENNING'S Funeral Home, 1148 North Broad Street, Rome. The funeral was held at the residence where the body lay in state and the services were conducted by the Rev. O.E. RUTLAND, pastor of the North Broad Baptist Church in which James had been a long time member. The remains of James Washington HAIGWOOD were laid to rest in a newly purchased family plot in the East View Cemetery in Rome on the afternoon of Wednesday, 13 NOV 1940. A double, white marble tombstone for James and his wife was placed upon the grave site.

The article appearing in the 11 NOV 1940 edition of the Rome-News-Tribune is quoted verbatum here for record purposes:

"JAS. W. HAIGWOOD DIES AT AGE OF 68; FUNERAL RITES FOR ROME JEWELER TO BE HELD WEDNESDAY. - James W. Haigwood, well known Rome jeweler, died at his residence, 105 Euclid Avenue, this morning at 1:15 o'clock, following an extended illiness. He was the son of the late E.N. and Nancy Jane Cummings Haigwood and was born in Stevenson, Ala., Aug. 11, 1872. Mr. Haigwood lived in Chattooga County from 1873 to 1882 and he moved to Floyd County in 1911. He had been a member of the North Broad Baptist Church for a number of years and had been active in the jewelry business here for 27 years. He was married to the former Miss Hattie Jennings, of Valley Head, Ala. (sic), Feb. 3, 1898. Surviving are the widow, five sons, Reuben Elbert, Norman, James Winston, and Robert E. After James Washington HAIGWOOD's death his widow, Hattie, continued to live in the old homeplace for several years until her declining health demanded constant care and supervision. She was admitted to the Ware's Nursing Home, "Rest Haven", on South Broad Street in Rome and died there on 15 AUG 1956.

The "big house on the hill" had been sold before Hattie's death three years earlier in August 1953 at auction to settle the estate of James Washington (he did not leave a Last Will). The appointed administrator of the estate was George R. ANDERSON of the firm of Clower & Anderson, Attorneys at Law. The purchaser of the home was a son, James Winston HAIGWOOD, for the price of fifteen hundred dollars. Upon his death the home passed to his daughter Sarah Frances HAIGWOOD who is still living in the home in 1983. The estate of James Washington was settled at a meeting of the heirs on Tuesday, September 1, 1953 at 11:00 A.M. in the law offices of Parker, Clary and Kent in Rome, Georgia.

He 1st. m. 1 JUL 1900 in Drewsey, Harney Co., Oregon Daisey MOFFETT b. 1884 Grant Co., Oregon and d. 1911 Mans (or Mains) Creek, Idaho. The following is a quote from a direct descendant of Jesse Levi: "Daisy (MOFFETT) GIBBS died by swallowing a needle while doing fancy needle-work. The needle went into her lungs. She died after two days and nights of suffering. Her husband, Jesse, rode an 8 yr. old horse 250 miles to be with her, riding as hard as he could. The horse was unbroken and on the way the horse was spooked by a train. The horse bucked into a fence and was tangled in the wire. The train stopped and the engineer cut Jesse and his horse loose. Both had been cut by the wire. He stopped in Cottonwoood, Idaho and sewed up a big cut on the shoulder of his horse, but did not take time to doctor himself. Out of Potluck, Idaho he rode the Indian trails because they were shorter. He rode to the farmland of Cambridge where a fellow named Mr. HUDDLESON had a car and drove Jesse on to the hospital. Daisy died just one half hour before he arrived. He was forced to shoot the horse because of the injuries. Jesse had come from the Moscow country to Weiser, Idaho in two days and nights. There were no trains, etc. down that way." unquote. Daisy was the daughter of James Thomas MOFFETT and Dolly SWICK.

First Methodist to look at history

The First United Methodist Church of Rome will take a look back at its long history during a special service set for 7:30 p.m. Sunday at the church.

The Methodist faith first moved into this area in 1825, when John B. McFerrin of Nashville was sent in as a Methodist missionary to the Indians of the Cherokee Nation. On his visits to Rome he often preached at the home of Indian chief John Ross, who lived in the vicinity, according to information furnished by the church. He also preached from stumps near the couty courthouse.

"The earliest house of worship in Rome of which any record is available was a log cabin school located across the street from the Rome Female College," reads the church's historical report. This building served all denominations.

The Methodist Church in Rome was organized in 1840, with six charter members. One of the old churches still stands — now serving as St. Paul's A.M.E. Church.

The historical service will include a display of old photographs showing early church scenes and individuals who have been active in the church's past. Pictures of many of the First Methodist pastors will also be displayed.

Also on display will be a photograph of Benjamin Franklin Otting who did the wood carving which highlights the church sanctuary. On display nearby is the mallet he used in completing the work.

Other well-known early Romans, such as the noted surgeon Dr. Robert Battey, are featured in the collection of photographs.

After the service, a reception will follow in Fellowship Hall.

Antique mallet given to First United Methodist

The antique wooden mallet pictured at left was recently donated to the First United Methodist Church by the John Haigwood family. The mallet was used about 1884 by Haigwood's great-grandfather, Benjamin Franklin Otting, a German immigrant, to drive wooden pegs into the oak woodwork in the church sanctuary. At right is the church loft, which holds the bell, cast in 1869 by Meneelys of New York.

to Menlo, Chattooga Co., Georgia. At the age of ten (1911) his family moved for the last time to Rome, Floyd Co., Ga. the birthplace of his grandfather, Elisha Norman HAIGWOOD.

Reuben began his education in the public schools of Menlo, Ga. and continued in the Fourth Ward School in Rome. A promotion certificate shows that he was "passed from the 'Primer' year of the course of study to the 'Low First' year". His standing was given as "viz 85%". Dated 24 APR 1908 and signed by Hughie C. ANDERSON, teacher of the Menlo School System.

The 1920 Census of Rome, Floyd Co., Ga. shows Reuben E. HAIGWOOD as the eighteen year old son enumerated in the family of James W. and Hattie G. HAIGWOOD.

His father, James W., had purchased a small watch and clock repair shop at 413½ Broad Street in Rome from an older brother, John, on 23 JUL 1913 and almost from the time of ownership Reuben began staying in the shop with his dad learning the trade. He would have been almost twelve years of age at the time and often he would say that he started in the watch repair business as a barefoot boy who had to stand upon a stool in order to see on top of his father's work bench.

Reuben was about twenty when he began dating Odessa COOPER,"Dessier" as he always called her. She was also known as "Det" by many of the family. He often related how he would catch the "street-car" in North Rome and travel "all the way down to Cave Spring Street, to have a date with 'Dessier'." Most of their dating was around the lake side in the old Mobley (DeSoto) Park area, now the Darlington Prep-School Campus. The trolley line, south, ended at this point and this is where he would catch the street-car for "the long ride" back home.

On the 16th of July 1922, Reuben Elbert HAIGWOOD and Odessa Matilda COOPER were united in matrimony by the Rev. Herbert Floyd "Parson" JOYNER, in a ceremony at the home of the bride's parents at 241 Cave Springs Street, Rome, Ga. Their first home after the wedding was in a "two-apartment" yellow house that was next to, and behind the Floyd County Court House on East First Street (now Tribune Street). A picture of the house may be seen on p. 481 of A History of Rome and Floyd County by George Magruder BATTEY, Jr. From the front of this house Reuben could walk directly across the street and into the back door of his father's watch repair shop, "the hole in the wall". Their neighbors in the apartment across the hall were Mr. and Mrs. E.L. "Bud" WRIGHT, he was a trolley-car conductor and later were friends and neighbors again in Detroit, Michigan.

After the birth of their first child Reuben moved his family into one of the houses belonging to his father on Woodward Street in North Rome, less than a block from his father's home on the hill on Euclid Avenue. Their two children, John and Bonnie, however, (in 1923 and 1925) were born in the home of Odessa's parents, a two story house at 243 Cave Springs Street. This house was next door to the one in which Reuben and Odessa had been married.

After his marriage Reuben continued to work with his dad until about 1927, during the depression years, when he moved his family of four to Detroit, Mich. where he found work as a watchmaker in one of the larger jewelry stores in the area. His brother, John Henry, was already established in Detroit and working for the Hudson Motor Co. He probably had a lot of influence on Reuben's decision to move north.

Reuben and Odessa, with their two children, in the beginning rented an apartment up-stairs over the landlords, the Ben F. MOENINGS. A year or so later the landlords moved from the apartment to their larger home in another section of the city, asking the Haigwood family to move into their downstairs apartment and to take charge of the apartment building.

Sometime in 1930 Reuben had moved his family back to Rome and were living on Burnett Street. At this time their first child entered the first grade in the North Rome public grammar school. About two years later Reuben and his family moved into the home of his mother-in-law who had been a widow since 1924. They remained in her household or she in their's until her death in 1973.

Upon returning to Rome in 1930 Reuben had rented space in the Rome Jewelry Store, owned and operated by Louie YALOWITZ, only a few doors down the block from his dad's shop. He worked there several years before rejoining his father when they moved for short stays to lower Broad, upper Broad Street and finally to #5 West Fourth Avenue. They were located at the latter place in 1940 when his father died. Reuben remained in this location until a few years later when he moved next door to #7 West Fourth Avenue.

THE FAMILY OF
REUBEN ELBERT HAIGWOOD #284

Standing L. to R.: Robert Berry JONES;
his wife Bonnie Mae (HAIGWOOD) #487;
John Elmer HAIGWOOD #486;
Reuben Elbert and Odessa HAIGWOOD

(Rome, Georgia - 1945)

after World War II, Reuben and his son went into partnership in a jewelry store at the above address. In 1951 his son volunteered for re-call to to active duty during the Korean Conflict, closing the retail jewelry part of the business, and Reuben remained in the repair business at the same location until about 1954 when he moved his watch and repair shop to the residence at 906 North Broad Street. In 1955-56 his son had a building constructed in front of the residence and Reuben moved, during January of 1956, into the smaller of the three units which had been constructed especially for his needs. There he remained until his death in December of 1974.

During World War I, Reuben had been too young to enter the military service and in World War II, though he had to register, he was too old to be called. He became very active in the National (Home) Guards during the second war and was very proud of his participation. He was very patriotic and would buy "war bonds" at all the rallies.

The three children of his daughter were raised from early childhood by Reuben and his wife as their own and they both loved them dearly. Their grandfather gave them much love as well as anything they wanted in a material way as far as his money would permit. He was not only generous in sharing what he had with members of his family but many times with perfect strangers. It was practically impossible for him to refuse any request for help from anyone. In many cases, due to his soft heart, he was taken advantage of by unscrupulous persons. After his death many letters were found that he had saved through the years from brothers, sisters, nephews, friends, etc. proving that everyone knew who could be called upon for a sure financial handout. There were only a few letters, among the many, that did not ask for something. It was often said that he "would give you the shirt off his back" and this was literally true. At his funeral, Reuben's family was shocked with the number of unknown persons, perfect strangers to the family, who came by to express sorrow and extend their sympathy. In almost every instance they would relate experiences they had had with "Mr. Haigwood" when he would repair their watches and then would say "no charge". One gentleman said that Mr. Haigwood had a lot to do with him having settled in Rome. It seems that this person was enroute somewhere via Greyhound bus while in the service during World War II. His watch needed repairing and when the bus stopped for a rest-stop in Rome he had walked a short distance down the block and saw "Mr. Haigwood's repair shop". His watch was repaired immediately and after being told that there were no charges, his being in uniform and serving his country was payment enough, the soldier was on the bus again and on his way. The gentleman said that he had often thought of that day and after the war he thought that "if others in Rome could be that nice, then that town would be a good place to settle down". And that is exactly what he did, later marrying a native Roman. Only a few of these experiences that were expressed at his funeral could easily fill a book.

In many instances some of his customers would move out of state and they would either send their work back to him, or, as in certain cases, save the watches and clocks for a number of years until they returned to Rome on a visit. Even today (1983) nine years after his death, there are former customers who come by, not having heard of his death, looking for Mr. Haigwood to repair their watches. You can see the disappointment in their faces when they learn that there is no longer a Haigwood watchmaker in the city of Rome.

"Rube" was a fisherman! It is believed that he enjoyed fishing more than anything else in the world. He was always ready to go fishing anytime someone would ask no matter what the weather may be. He would often joke with his wife's oldest and unmarried sister, Genie, and tell her that when they both were dead and buried in Myrtle Hill Cemetery (the family plot overlooks the junction of the Oostanaula and Etowah Rivers where they join to form the Coosa River) that the two of them would go fishing every night. All that "Aunt Genie" would ever say in her quiet and shy way would be "aw Rube". Reuben was a good man, tender hearted and very sentimental. He was extremely quiet, very gentle and unassuming. Quiet, unless he had a few beers under his belt. He never, knowingly, did harm to anyone or spoke degradingly of any person.

On the 21st of December 1974, on his seventy-third birthday, he conducted his last business transaction in his little repair shop and early in the afternoon he came next door to the gift shop and told his son and daughter-in-law that he was not feeling well and thought he would go to bed. They knew that he had to be very sick for dad never did complain about his health. Many times he would be in great pain with his arthritis and he could be caught rubbing himself, but he never complained. He had been so happy earlier that morning with his birthday gifts, and never more proud than he had been when an old friend of many years and now a neighbor, Jack ARONOFF, had brought him a present of socks and handkerchiefs. Immediately after "Mr. Jack" had left, Reuben in his weak condition had to rush next door to show his son and daughter-in-law his gift. He was always so appreciative of even the smallest attention given him. That afternoon his son's wife had brought him an inhaler for the room thinking it would help him to breathe easier. In the evening before his son left from work and had gone in to see him for the last time that day, "Rube" said, "son, thank you and Ann for all that you have done for me", when actually, what had been done was so very little.

Reuben was rushed to the hospital via ambulance at 5:45 P.M. on 26 DEC with bleeding ulcers. His wife said that he had gotten out of bed the day before, Christmas Day, and when she had gone out to the shop to see about him, there he was with the door opened wide and sitting at his workbench repairing a watch. She asked him what he was doing with the shop open on Christmas. He was dazed. He did not realize what day it was. He left his workbench for the last time and returned to his bed. The day following his admission to the hospital he underwent surgery and after a rough period of time, during which it was not expected that he would survive, he did improve for a day or so and everything seem to indicate that he would be out of intense therapy in a few days, however, there was a sudden reversal to his condition after he had somehow developed pneumonia.

At 8:13 (the exact time that the hands on the old metal clock sign which hung for many years over the "hole in the wall" on Broad Street had been painted) on the evening of December 30th, 1974 with his son standing beside the hospital bed and holding his hand, "Rube" opened his eyes after hearing the word "Dad", gave a faint smile and breathed his last breath of life. His heart had finally given up...

Reuben Elbert's funeral services were conducted in the Chapel of the Jennings Funeral Home at 11:00 A.M. on 2 JAN 1975 with the Rev. Talmadge BARNES, pastor of the Lakeview Baptist Church, officiating. Entombment immediately followed in the family plot in Myrtle Hill Cemetery, Rome, Floyd Co., Georgia. A double, grey granite, monument was erected for Reuben and Odessa. Reuben Elbert HAIGWOOD was a kind, generous man who had a great compassion for his fellowmen.

His widow, Odessa Matilda (COOPER) HAIGWOOD, continued to live in their home on North Broad until a fire destroyed the house on 10 APR 1976. She then moved into an apartment on North Fifth Avenue, Rome and in 1983 was still living there.

304. DON MICHAEL HAIGWOOD (165)

b. 2 DEC 1923 Bristow, Creek Co., Okla. Son of Jake Lee HAIGWOOD and Florence Edith Mae ROUS. He m. 24 JUN 1947 Chloe Reda WOOD b. 24 FEB 1926 Sayre, Beckham Co., Okla. In APR 1978 Don Michael sent the following to this compiler, quote: "Now I will tell you a little about myself. I started to school at 5 at Forty Nine, Okla. then to Snomac, and then to Pleasant Grove, which used to be a small town named Buzzard's Roost, and then to Seminole where I graduated in 1942. Buzzard's Roost was about half way between Seminole and Earlsboro, Okla. We used to call it Ear's Jackass. I served a hitch in the Air Force, in World War II. I was a pencil pusher all during the war. I took my discharge in California and was married there in 1947. I worked as a heavy equipment engineer most of the next 20 years except for a couple of years in the taxi cab business and a year in the gold mine business. Myself and two others bought 'The Eagle Bird Mine' in 1952, in Sierra County. Bill DESSELL, a partner, had a heart attack and died, I went broke and had to get out, so it went into the hands of Charlie HUMPHRY who would be about 100 years old by now. I retained 10% interest, but as yet I have received nothing in return. Reda and I had two children and adopted two more. We were divorced in 1958 and I went to work for the third largest Water System in the world, the East Bay Municipal Utilities District. After my third heart attack I retired in 1967 and returned to Seminole, Okla. I bought a home and moved my father and mother in with me, until they died at 74 and 75...That is 1974 & 1975. I do small carpenter jobs and auto mechanic jobs now, to supplement my retirement, as my youngest daughter has epilepsy and cannot hold a job very long. I have spent hundreds of dollars trying to find what has caused this condition and how to cure it or learn to live with it, but no success as yet. I am a conservative Republican and an executive in the Seminole County. I am also a Baptist and a firm believer in Jesus Christ, but I am not what you would call a Holy Moly." unquote. Don Michael is another member of the Haigwood Clan who has been very interested in the family history for many years and is primarily the person responsible for much of the information on his direct lines that appear in this book.

315. MARY MELTON (174)

b. 18 OCT 1900 Wilson Co., Tenn. Daughter of John Fisher and Lula (MELTON) MELTON. She m. 9 DEC 1924 Joseph Sheppard BARNETT, Jr. b. 9 SEP 1892 Galveston, Texas. Mary Melton BARNETT was the person responsible for researching the genealogical information on her family line.

Mary (MELTON) BARNETT on 16 JUN 1966 sent this compiler a copy of a letter written by her grandmother, Mary Jane (McCOY) MELTON, dated 18 JUN 1930. The first paragraph in her letter of transmittal is herein quoted: "Here is a copy of my grandmother's letter...and in the process of copying it I have sustained a low blow. As I told you, her hand-writing was toward the last of her letter pretty hard to read and when I had read the letter before I read in a rather cursory fashion, taking for granted some of the names I thought I knew she was mentioning. But in copying it word for word I found out...and I think, beyond the shadow of a doubt...that where she mentions the names of her grandfathers who fought in the War of 1812, the name was Samuel HAIGWOOD, not Lemuel. The beginning letter of the first name was formed exactly as that in the "Shiloh Battle" and the second letter was undoubtedly an "a". I proceeded to go over the letter carefully and every beginning "S" was exactly like this one and every little "a" the same. I am still convinced that the HAYGOOD will is the right one even tho there is no son named Samuel mentioned. As I said before I am not going to be put off by first names but must admit I'm a little tired of this particular one shifting itself around so much! In all the conversations I had with my mother and other members of the family, my grandmother's maternal grandfather was given as Lemuel. But I don't remember ever talking to her about it and surely she was closer to him and shouldn't have given his name wrong. My sister says she always read it in this letter as Lemuel but admits it was a taking for granted process." unquote.

THE LETTER written by Mary Jane (McCOY)MELTON is quoted verbatum: "June 18, 1930 Dear Ruth, I received your letter and will proceed to tell you more about our trip. I was the oldest woman in Amite County while there. Numbers of the older women have passed away and there were only four men older than I.

We were continually on the go and when we got back there had been callers white and black to see us. I tell you this, which I think is wonderful. One colored woman came and brought two of her daughters to see me. She said...'I want my children to have it to say that they saw with their own eyes a granddaughter of my Mother's old slave Mistress and we are not going to let our old people's name be forgotten for I heard Mammie say there was nobody any better to her than her old Miss Ann McCOY. I am Charlot's child, who belonged to old Miss Ann McCOY and we love all our white folks and respect their names and teach our children coming on to do the same, and we are trying to bring them up just like Old Miss raised my Mammie. I teach them to trust in God and I got a son who left me to go to that wicked place Chicago and now he is writing me to send him money to come home. But I'se going to let him have plenty of it to learn him a lesson he never forget and we all know the children these days think we old mothers don't know anything. But we all forgotten more than they ever learns. These fool young niggers is crazy about the North and I am sorry I couldn't put no sense in my poor boy's head. Well he finding out that I had more sense than he had and sure am going to let him get enough of it'.

I will tell you how she was dressed. She had on red polka dot dress, good shoes and a hat and her daughters were well dressed. She said she had a good home and so have her daughters and she said they had good men and they were both deacons in their church and are raising their children to be lawful and trusting in God. I was sorry Bootsie wasn't there to hear her talk. The next day her son-in-law and daughter came and brought their baby to see us. Bootsie was astonished to hear them talk and tell about our old forefathers. They remembered things I had forgotten. Charlot's daughter told me about pater-rollers going to mother's quarters and beat her mother over the head and Marse Lighy (that was my father) came to the quarters and he and Scot RAMSEY fought.

You know I got more information out of these old negroes I had forgotten. This may seem foolish but I was thrilled and I am sorry I did not talk to more of them. I am the only one left in our family and Luda FORREST is the only one left in her family. There were ten children in each family. Aunt Emmeline had eight girls and two boys and my mother had eight boys and two girls, and there's one girl in each family left. Luda sent me a pressing invitation to come see her and Bob WHITE sent his love and to be sure to come.

I'll tell you some more about the old slaves. When we drove by where one of the old Hurst slaves live they hailed us and came out and all knew me. One of them said, 'You're Miss Danie and look just like Miss Margaret'. We went by another house and MayBee blew her horn and one of them came out with a lantern and MayBee said 'See if you know who this is' and he held the lantern up and said 'She looks just like Miss Margaret and must be her sister, Miss Danie'. They've all got good homes and Ford cars and living peacebly and MayBee says they are more law abiding than some of the white people and are happy and contented. You'll have to get Bootsie to tell you about the old negro that belonged to Grandma, it will take too long to write. I am glad they are free, they might have fallen into hands that would have been cruel to them.

Now I'll tell you about Cousin Olie. She married a Neaumann and we had dinner with her daughter who has four daughters. Had a wonderful dinner. Her son-in-law is a very well to do farmer and they are going to Clinton to send the girls to college. MayBee has bought three acres of ground in Clinton and built a house there to send her children to school. Cousin Olie is my father's brother Poindexter (Pinie, nickname) McCOY's child. Her mother was Martha COLINSWORTH and she married old Conrad FLUKER's son Robert and he died and left her with three children and she married Uncle Pinie McCOY and Cousin Olie is the last child. Uncle Pinie was killed in the Shilo Battle and she's the last one of the Fluker or McCoy children. She is so sweet. Everybody loves Olie and her face proves it. Her daughter told me she had never seen her mother out of humor, that somehow she managed to rule with her disposition. She told me if I went to New Orleans she would come and stay with me. She is so nice. Her aunt, Pris COLINSWORTH was one of my bridesmaids. She use to tell me if I got married before you do I want you to be one of my maids and if you get married first I want to be one of your maids.

I forgot to tell you about Harrell HAIGWOOD who is the only child of Uncle Elisha HAIGWOOD. He is just a few days older than I. He went to New Orleans with a grandson to the hospital and I did not get to see him. I loved him in childhood days. He was not there when we were there. He lived on Bayou de Glace (I believe this is how to spell it) and has moved back to Amite County, Miss. We did not get to go there. If Ruby goes to New Orleans I am going there for the winter. Oh, I love Mississippi and Lousiana and if I can sell my land I will buy a home in New Orleans. People look different there, their faces are a glow of peace and kindness, the food tastes different and they have the best tasting water and everybody is so accommodating. We can drive there, the roads are fine and go by way of Vicksburg and see that and come down the river to Natchez and on to Baton Rouge. Christine BROADWAY wants us to come and stay with her. She is doing fine and has six children. She has the same Negroes working for her for years. MayBee has Negroes working on her farm and so does Mirtes. Everyone around have moved or going to move to town to send their children to schools. So we have no one in the country long. There are not white children to support a school and all the schools moved to Liberty and they take them to school in busses. Most of the people have bought land out of the city limits and built houses and their farms support them. MayBee and Murtis have good farms and can afford to go to town.

I don't know whether I told you about the dinner at Minnie's. I did not get to talk to her privately there were so many there, three long tables full. Minnie does not look well and the oldest girl told me not to mention Grandpa McCoy to Mama, that Mama almost grieved her life away. MayBee told me the doctor advised them to let him remain in the hospital. He needed every care and trained nurses. He was surely a loving brother. My brothers were all good, fine men, I loved them dearly. All the McCoys were fine people. Not like some of the old Tory clan of people. Nothing but old Torys and their children were KuClucks (if I spell it right) and they are nothing today. Why the old negroes that used to belong to us are doing better than that clan. There's not one of the whole tribe of Lee PHILLIPS, Linsey's and Carruth's that can say and prove of one of their forefathers what the McCoys and Haigwoods and Browns can say of theirs and there's not a livin soul that can deny what I say for our names are on record. I stood on Lake Ponchstrain on the ground where two of my grandfathers fought, Jesse McCOY and Samuel HAIGWOOD, my father and mother's fathers who fought on the lake in New Orleans in 1812 and Grandmother McCoy drew a pension after the Civil War from the Jackson War of 1812 until she died. The Yankees destroyed everything she had and my great grand Fathers fought in the Revolutionary War and their names are there to prove it and after the war was over my great grand Fathers on both sides came to Mississippi before it was ever a state and lived on dirt and puncheon floors and beat corn in a mortar and raised flax and silk and my grandfather built the first mill in Mississippi to grind corn. Not one of them was ever a Kucluck and not one of the name of McCoy stayed out of the Civil War on the twenty negro law. Uncle Pinie could have stayed out on the twenty negro law for he and aunt Martha had twice that many negroes and so could Uncle Poleon. The Clinton boys went not one and the Pipkins and the old Tory set piloted the Yankees to homes where the gold and silver was and where the Yankees could get provisions and horses. And when every soldier's wives were taken care of, burnt their gins and mills. The Nettles and the Pipkins and numbers I could mention were never bothered. The Pipkins are all dead and the Nettles are all broke and one of their wives is going to run for sheriff but she'll never get it. He spent all he had buying votes and lost his home and can't pay his debts. God moves in a mysterious way. Ill gotten gains surely are removed in many ways and if Nettles wife runs for sheriff I will go down there if I have to be put on the cars and take a seat in the court house and they can't prevent me and I will tell them some facts. Old Lee PHILLIPS and Shrimp MARTIN and the Carruths, they can't hurt me. Murder will out. I will tell who burnt our fences while we were at Joe HURST's log rolling and I will tell who stole Bradfords cotten and then joined the Kuclucks Clan and cut old Simon PORTER's ears off and beat him up because he told Billie PIPKEN. I know lots of their old rascality but had to lie low because my husband and brothers would not join the Kuclucks. I'm not afraid now.

I just looked at all these sheets and the paper is giving out and I guess when you read all this you will think I am off and beside myself. I really did enjoy every minute in the country and hated to leave. I left out lots of names I'll tell you about next time. I am laughing to think what you will say when you get all this old gossip but forgive me and pass my imperfections by. I'll give you time to recover and let Bootsie tell you all about the old negroes. I haven't told you one fourth. I wish Lula could have been here. I laugh a while and cry a while and oh well, I had a good time. I hate to call you down but you didn't mention the baby and I am hurt about it. Kiss her for me and I wish I could have seen my great granddaughter. Love to all, /signed/ Old Mama". unquote. Letter written by Mary Jane (McCOY) MELTON, age 84.

b. Monday 20 AUG 1923 Rome, Floyd Co., Georgia. Son of Reuben Elbert HAIGWOOD and Odessa Matilda COOPER. He married 12 OCT 1953 Maria Anna "Ann" SILVIO in St. Benedict Catholic Church in Conimicutt, Warwick, Kent Co., Rhode Island. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Phillip S. McKENNA, pastor, assisted by Rev. LAWLESS. John's Best Man was his long time friend, Leo Arnold WOLLSTEIN, from his hometown of Rome. "Ann" was b. 20 JAN 1925 in Providence, Providence Co., R.I. Daughter of Ernesto Antonio SILVIO, Sr. and Luigia Lucia DeCRESCENZO, both having been immigrants from the Island of Ischia, off the coast of Italy. Her father, Ernesto, was b. 13 JUN 1891 Lacco Ameno, Island of Ischia, Italy. The son of Salvatore SILVIO b. 1 OCT 1862 an d. 16 DEC 1933, and Maria Vincenza SOGLIUZZO b. 28 OCT 1862 and d. 8 FEB 1949. "Ann" was baptised in the Holy Ghost Catholic Church in Providence on 3 MAY 1925. Her Godparents were Mr. and Mrs. Guiseppe DiGiacinto, friends of her parents. Ann was employed in her father's grocery store during World War II, and later in a Providence bank. At the time of her marriage she was employed by her brother, Salvatore, in his wholesale produce market. For a short while after their marriage, Ann worked at the Springfield National Bank in St. Albans, L.I., N.Y. After the first child was born all her time was devoted to her children, her husband and to their home, as it is to this day. Maria Anna "Ann" was on a visit with members of her family to the Haigwoods in Rome, Ga. when John proposed to her on the summit of Myrtle Hill at 11:30 PM on 15 APR 1953.

John was born in the home of his maternal grandparents, William Bennett and Nancy Pauline (OTTING) COOPER at 241 Cave Spring Street, Rome, with Dr. William SHAW attending. He was baptised by the Rev. Dr. Leo Wilkie COLLINS, Sr. in the First Methodist Church of Rome on Easter Sunday 1931. This was the church of his maternal grandmother and, his great grandfather Benjamin Franklin OTTING who had come as a young boy from Frankfort, an der, Oder, Germany had helped in building the church and had done all the beautiful wood work, including the wooden ceiling, in the main sanctuary during 1884-88. After John's conversion to Catholicism, he was conditionally baptised on Saturday 2 MAY 1953 in the Sacred Heart Catholic Church in Charleston, South Carolina by the Rev. Henry F. WOLF, later a Monsignor, who also gave John his First Holy Communion on the next day, Easter Sunday 3 MAY 1953. John's sponsors for his baptism were his friend and later best-man at his wedding Leo Arnold WOLLSTEIN and John's first cousin Maria Pauline DIPRIMA (Mrs. Henry Russell POWELL). Both were represented by stand-ins.

John received his primary education in the Rome Public Schools, attending the first and second grades at North Rome, the third and fourth were spent at Central Primary, located on East Second St., and the next three grades were spent one block up the hill in the "old Neely School" at the base of the Old Town Clock. The school building has since been demolished. Four years of high school was in Rome High (the name was changed during his senior year to "Boys High" when the girls and boys were seperated, with the girls going to the new building a block away). The old Rome High building, which had earlier been Shorter College, was also torn down in 1982, one year after John's Class of '41 had celebrated their 40th Anniversary with their first reunion. John attended Wake Forest College, at Wake Forest, N.C., and was there when World War II was declared. He later, while in the Navy, attended the George Washington University, Washington, D.C.

On the 4th of July 1942 John enlisted as an Apprentice Seaman in the United States Navy, and received "boot camp" at the Naval Training Center, Norfolk, Virginia. From "boot camp" he was selected to receive further training in the Hospital Corps of the Navy at the school in Portsmouth, Va. After completion of the course, his first duty station was at the U.S. Naval Hospital, Jacksonville, Fla. From there he was transferred to a new "lighter-than-air" base (blimps) being installed at the Naval Air Station in Glynco, Ga. At the time of his arrival, the barracks were not completed, there were no doors, and it was not uncommon to have wild hogs from the "Piney Woods" of Ga. roaming through the sleeping quarters. An assignment to the "Section Base" at Mayport, Fla. came next, followed by orders to Lido Beach, N.Y. where he reported aboard the LST 281 (Landing Ship Tank). The ship sailed up to Boston and from there to Halifax, Nova Scotia and thence to England in the early part of 1944. John remained aboard the 281 in England and was aboard when she participated in the Invasion of Normandy on 6 JUN 1944. It was later learned that his Commanding Officer had been one of six to volunteer to be in the "First Wave" of assult ships, landing troups and supplies on the "Omaha Beachhead" of France. The ship made many trips from England to the different beach-heads of France, hitting every beach that had been used by the Allies for their landing on "D-Day", always transporting American, English, Canadian or other allied troups and their equipment on the voyage over and returning with either allied wounded or German prisoners of war. After the fall of the port of Cherbourg, France to the allies John was transferred to the U.S.S. Southland. The ship made its way to Cherbourg and tied-up next to the pier and for some time served as a receiving and berthing ship for military personnel in that area. The "old Southland" was quite a milestone in the history of the United States Navy. It seems that there were several such ships, including the U.S.S. Layden, that had been drafted into the service of their country during the war, from their previous use as "over-night, wooden excursion boats" on various rivers of the United States. These ships were all heading in convoy for the European Theater of Operations (ETO) according to reports, however, only the two named made it safely across the Atlantic Ocean. The Southland was a coal burner while the Layden had been converted to diesel. John, therefore, had the honor of serving on the last "coal-burning, wooden ship" that was ever commissioned in the Naval Service. The understanding is that the United States government never thought of returning the two ships from Europe after the war. They could possibly still be in service across the Atlantic under the flag of another country.

After things in Europe had quietened down a-bit, John received his orders to report aboard the U.S.S. LST 44, as Senior Pharmacist Mate and medical department representative (MDR - Independent Duty, without a doctor).

By this time he had received his promotion to Pharmacist Mate First Class. This ship was also continuing the shuttle trips across the English Channel. He was assigned to the 44, but on a short leave in London when "V-E Day" was declared (Victory in Europe), the date the Germans surrendered to the Allies. Shortly after the surrender, John was transferred to the Staff, Commander, LST Group 51 and promoted to Chief Pharmacist Mate. His duties on the Staff consisted of inspecting each medical department on the ships and preparing them for their return to CONUS (continental limits United States) for further deployment to the Pacific Theater of Operations. At the time of John's promotion to Chief, he had served in every rate from Hospital Apprentice second class through First Class Pharmacist Mate. He was promoted to Chief Petty Officer after two and one-half years in the Navy and at the age of twenty-one. He was considered one of the youngest, if not the youngest, Chief to have come up through all the rates. At that time, many of the Chiefs in the Navy were old timers who had been recalled from retirement and wore hash-marks up to their elbows or else they were specialists who had been given the rate of Chief upon entering the Naval service. John was never qualified to wear the first hash-mark, representing four years of service, until he volunteered for recall to active duty in 1951. John returned from Europe to the United States with the knowledge that he would now deploy with the Commander's Staff to the Pacific to join in the fight against the Japanese. However, while he was home on leave, in Rome, Ga., "V-J Day" (Victory in Japan) occurred, and when he rejoined his unit in Norfolk, Va. he was given orders to report for duty with the Seperation Center at Little Creek, Va. where he was instrumental in the rapid medical processing of naval personnel for their return to civilian life, before receiving his own seperation from service at that location on 11 JAN 1946.

After returning to Rome, Ga. he entered the jewelry store business with his father, and after about five years and during the Korean Conflict, he asked for and received orders for active duty and was assigned as Chief Hospital Corpsman in the Personnel Office at the Naval Hospital, Charleston, S.C. From there he received orders to the U.S.S. Mercer (APB-39), a berthing ship, often called by her crew "a pregnant LST". He was responsible for placing the large sick-bay area back in commission after the ship had been placed in "moth-balls" at Green Cove Springs, Fla. after World War II. The ship was then deployed to Naples, Italy and for about a year served as berthing quarters for some of the Staff of Admiral Robert CARNEY. John was on duty without a Medical Officer or doctor. After the ship returned to Davisville, R.I., and John having enough time to meet and fall in love with his future wife, he received orders to the U.S.S.Reedbird (AMS 51), in dry dock at Charleston, S.C. to await selection and orders to Officer's Candidate School at Newport, R.I. During the period that he was assigned to the Reedbird he managed to take the shake-down cruise on her after she left dry-dock, during the period of repairs he was living in his old room at the Naval Hospital. His orders arrived and he was off to Rhode Island again. After graduation from OCS and receiving his commission as an Ensign in the Medical Service Corps of the United States Navy, he was assigned duty as the Assistant Personnel Officer and later the Special Services Officer at the Naval Hospital, St. Albans, L.I. New York. While stationed there John and Ann were married, and from St. Albans they and their three daughters (ages 16 mos. and twins, 3 mos.) travelled by auto and plane to Japan for a two year tour of duty at the Naval Hospital in Yokosuka as the Personnel Officer. Returning to the states, he was assigned duty at the Marine Corps Air Station in Beaufort, S.C. as the Administrative Officer of the new Dispensary. While living in Beaufort their first son was born and died at the Naval Hospital. From Beaufort he was given orders, as a student, to the Naval School of Hospital Administration at Bethesda, Maryland for a full year of instructions. This school was associated with the George Washington University. After graduation he was assigned to duty as the Chief, Personnel and Records Division at the Naval Hospital, Newport, Rhode Island. While stationed there John and Ann's last two sons were born. John held the position of Personnel Officer for five years until he requested to be placed on the retirement list of the Navy. He retired on 1 OCT 1967 as Lieutenant-Commander, Medical Service Corps after more than twenty years of active duty and twenty-five years of creditable service for pay purposes. During his military career he had received several letters of commendation, as well as a number of campaign medals.

After his retirement, John moved his family back to his home town of Rome, Ga. where he and Ann opened a gift shop (Haigwood's Gift Store) in a building which they owned at 906 North Broad Street. They bought a home at 24 Villamar Drive, N.W. in Rome and are living there in 1984. The greatest enjoyment in John's life has been his dear wife and their five loving children, nothing else is so important. He has also enjoyed his hobbies of stamp collecting and genealogy (researching the Haigwood family history) for about fifty years. He is the compiler of this book.

iv. John Ernest Silvio HAIGWOOD b. 7 JUL 1960 Naval Hospital Beaufort, Beaufort Co., South Carolina. Lived two days and d. 9 JUL 1960 Beaufort, S.C. The remains were returned to Rome, Floyd Co., Ga. and buried in the family plot of Myrtle Hill Cemetery on 10 AUG 1960. At the time of his birth his parents were informed by the physician that they "now have a healthy baby boy". Two days later his mother noticed that he was having difficulty in breathing, his death occurred shortly thereafter. The autopsy performed showed that his little heart only had two chambers instead of the normal four. "Baby John" was the only one of the six children who arrived on almost the exact date of expectancy. His twin sisters, for instance, had been born prematurely and were in incubators for several weeks. The loss of "Baby John" was a great blow to Ann and John, they had looked forward for a son for so long. The extreme grief experienced is easily remembered today.

THE SILVIO AND SOGLIUZZO COAT OF ARMS

This is a copy of an original document brought from Italy by Ernesto A. Silvio on one of his return trips. The Arms had hung above his grandfather's desk for many years. The script is in "old Italian" and is very difficult to translate.

This photograph was taken of a painting of the original by a New York artist in 1955. The original document is very fragile and not displayed. It is now in the possession of the John E. Haigwood Family.

The (very old) original SILVIO and SOGLIUZZO Coat-of-Arms (above) was in the home, pictured below, before being brought to the United States.

SECTION B

Compiler's Note: This section pertains to the known descendants of Hugh HAIGWOOD. Information on this family line was furnished in 1966 by Thomas Jefferson HAIGWOOD, Sr. of North Wilkesboro, N.C., who is now deceased, and Mrs. John Henry (Daisy Mae BEAUCHAMP) HAIGWOOD in 1983 of Taylorsville, Mississippi. For many years this compiler has tried, without success, to tie this family line into that of Francis HOGWOOD, our progenitor. Adequate information, thus far, has not been provided and it is believed that perhaps only one or two generations prevent the connection and inclusion of this line within the family tree.

Daughter of John SCOTT. The following deeds are filed in the Office of the Clerk of Court, Fairfield Co.: From Lewis HAIGOOD (his father?) to Joel A. HAIGOOD, pertaining to 40 acres sold in 1869. This was in connection with a "Bill of Complaint" filed by Adaline MILLER, Joel A. HAIGOOD and others, against one Martha HAIGOOD, John D. HAIGOOD and others, asking for the sale of land of Lewis HAIGOOD in 1875. The land was subsequently held at auction and purchased by Joel A. HAIGOOD for the sum of $350.00 in JAN 1876. The land was described as lying and situated on the waters of Morris Creek in Fairfield Co. and bounded by land of Jane COOK, C.H. SCRUGGS, Samuel L. CRAWFORD, William BOYD and others. (Bk. "ZZ", p. 541). The other deed is from Lewis HAIGOOD to Joel A. HAIGOOD regarding 52 acres sold in 1876 (Bk. "QH" or "AH", p. 407). He was listed as Joel HAGOOD in the 1870 Census of Fairfield Co. as Head of Family and a farmer. His real estate value was $400. and personal property valued at $125. Notice the name change to HAGOOD.

Children Include:

6D. i. George B. HAGOOD, Sr. b. 1866/67.

ii. Elizabeth R. "Lizzie" HAGOOD b. JAN 1870. She m. Mr. SHARP.

7D. iii. Jack Johnsen HAGOOD b. 24 FEB 1876.

5D. LOUIS JEFFERSON "Jeff" HAYGOOD/HAIGOOD (Issue of #1D)

b. 1844/45 Fairfield Co., S.C. Son of Louis and Rachael HAYGOOD. "Jeff came from around the Camden area of Fairfield County and was a brother of Joel HAGOOD", a quote from Bobby Spencer HAYGOOD, Sr. in 1977. "Jeff" was probably married to Louisa H. SCOTT ca. 1869. In the 1870 Census of Fairfield Co. (p. 9 Dwelling #72 Family #72) we find as Head of Family in Township #10, P.O. Winnsboro a John SCOTT age 60 and farmer, under him is listed "Jefferson" age 25 farm laborer and following Jefferson is "Louisa H. HAGOOD" age 18 housekeeper, and after her is a child, "George", being one year of age. There was probably a mistake made in dittoing the name SCOTT in front of Jefferson's name. The age would be correct for Louis Jefferson HAYGOOD with Louisa HAGOOD being his wife and John SCOTT his father-in-law. It is interesting to note listed on the same page of this census (next dwelling and family) is Joel HAGOOD, brother of Jeff. Since we know that Joel had married Rebecca SCOTT it now becomes apparent that "Jeff" and Joel had married sisters and lived next to each other, probably on their father-in-law's land. Additional information may be obtained from the 1880 Census. It is of interest to note that both couples had named their first son George. There were probably more than two children for this couple.

Children Include:

i. George HAGOOD b. ca 1869. He is listed in the 1870 Census.

8D. ii. Robert deAster HAYGOOD b. after the 1870 Census.

6D. GEORGE B. HAGOOD, Sr. (Issue of #4D)

ii. Edgar E. HAGOOD was the third issue and was living in Winnsboro, S.C. in 1977.

iii. Thomas B. HAGOOD was the fourth child and died leaving no issue.

SECTION G

Compiler's Note: Most of the information in this section was contributed by Mrs. Margarett Beth (HEGWOOD) SAUCEMAN of LaFayette, Ga. At the time she was unable to list her ancestors beyond her g.g.g. grandfather Wiley HAGUEWOOD (also found spelled: HAYGOOD/HOGWOOD/HAYWOOD/HAGWOOD and HAGOOD). She is quoted as saying: "I strongly suspect Wiley's father to be either Griffin HAYGOOD (see #8.i.) or Bird HAYGOOD (see #4.i.) both are listed in the 1790C. of Montgomery Co., N.C....Griffin even came to Franklin Co., Ga. in 1822 while Wiley was there. Bird disappeared after 1810." unquote. Mrs. SAUCEMAN was advised by Global Research (The Mormons) to center her research around Hezekiah HOPGOOD from Granville Co., 1790C., his name actually coming from the tax list. They offered her no information or reason for concentrating on this particular person. She does list her ancestor, Wiley, as having been born in Granville Co., N.C.

1G. WILEY HAGUEWOOD/HAGOOD

b. JAN 1782/83 (Granville Co.?), N.C. and d. 26 MAY 1860 Cherokee Co., Ga. of palsey. The family bible gives his name as "HAGUEWOOD" under the marriage entry and as "HAGOOD" under his death entry. He m. Rebecca GOBER (or HARRISON) on 16 DEC 1817 by Rev. Samson LAIN. In the bible she was listed as Rebecca GOBER under the marriage entry and as Rebecca HARRISON for her death entry. Was her middle name "Gober"? She was b. 1800 in Ga. and d. 19 JAN 1864 in Cherokee Co., Ga. She left a personal estate, no land, for which her son had to post a bond in the amount of $8000. Wiley supposedly came to Georgia in 1806. He was shown in the 1820 and 1830 Censuses of Franklin Co., Ga. and as Wiley HAYWOOD in the 1840C. of that county. He appeared as Wiley HAGOOD in the 1850C. of Cherokee Co., Ga. From Reprint of Land Lottery, 1827 (Ga.) p. 53 "Wiley HAGUEWOOD & D. CHANDERS #249, District 23, Sec. 1."

Quoting Mrs. SAUCEMAN: "I know from the mortality census of 1860 that he (Wiley) was born in North Carolina, he then appeared in Franklin Co., Ga. where he purchased land in 1817. He drew free land in Lee Co. in the 1827 lottery...He stayed in Franklin Co. through the census of 1840, and then went to Cherokee Co. by 1850, and was there in 1860. He died in 1860 and his family moved to Walker Co., Ga. in 1868, with the exception of his daughter Eliza, who had married a WESTBROOK. When Wiley came to Franklin Co. in 1817, at the same time there also came an Asa and a Griffin (HAYGOOD). Asa was a young man because there is a record of his marriage at about the same time. Griffin already had a wife named Elizabeth. ...I am just certain...that Asa is Wiley's brother and Griffin his father." unquote.

SECTION I

Compiler's Note: The information in this section on the HEYWOOD/HAYWOOD Line was primarily taken from the notes of Mr. Jefferson C. DAVIS, Sr., genealogical researcher, who for many years prior to his death in OCT 1965 had compiled data on this family line. A quote from Mr. DAVIS regarding his study: "...information has been prepared with care. It is not believed that it is entirely free of errors. It is obviously incomplete." unquote. He urged descendants to add to information already collected and to correct mistakes that come to their attention.

DESCENDANTS OF PETER HEYWOOD b. 1164

John HAYWOOD arrived in Edgecombe Co., N.C. in 1741 at the age of 57 with his wife and six children. Authors disagree on the origin of this John HAYWOOD, but it is generally agreed that he was a descendant of John HEYWOOD of Bolton, Lancashire, England. This earlier John HEYWOOD is said to be descended from a younger branch of the family HEYWOOD, of Heywood, Lancashire, which had been settled there from very early times, taking their name from Heywood in that county. Adam de BURGO or BURY granted lands in Heywood in the parish of Bury to Peter HEYWOOD b. 1164, which remained in the possession of the family down to the 18th. Century.

4I. iv. John HEYWOOD (Sir), of Barbados.

v. Josiah HEYWOOD joined his brother in Barbados.

4I. JOHN HEYWOOD (Sir) (3I)

Of Barbados, West Indies was born in England and removed to Barbados where he had issue. In England he was known as "John of Barbados", but in this country he is referred to as "John of England". He was the father of John HAYWOOD who settled in Edgecombe County, North Carolina in 1741. One theory of his origin was that he was born in England, but of Scottish ancestry. His forefathers had several generations before located in England and with the passing of time, the Scottish spelling of HAIGH-WOLD/

HAIGHWOOD had taken on the English spellings of HEYWOOD/HAYWOOD by many branches of the family.

Politically speaking the HEYWOODs were Royalist Scotchmen (James the First, King of England having been James VI of Scotland who had four generations of Scotch ancestors and very little English blood in his veins). The Royalist Scotchmen were not held in the greatest of favor by Oliver CROMWELL during his years of influence on the political scene.

A number of Royalist Scotchmen voluntarily sailed for Barbados in the West Indies and settled ca. 1825 in the area of Bethsheba, or what today is known as Holetown. With mountains being only hills on the Isle of Barbados, a settlement near Hackleton's Cliff became known as "Scotland" because its hills resembled those of the homeland. After CROMWELL came to power, a great number of Royalist Scotchmen in England were "exiled" to Barbados and many were shipped to the West Indies in the "New World" as slaves. It was at about this time that "John of England" arrived in Barbados where he married and had issue.

Children Include:

5I. i. John HAYWOOD b. 1684/85.

5I. JOHN HAYWOOD (4I)

b. 1684/85 in Christ Church Parish, St. Michael, Barbados Island, West Indies and d. in 1758 in North Carolina. Son of John HEYWOOD of England and Barbados. John HAYWOOD removed to the Colony of Massachusetts where he married Mary LOVETT in Beverly, Mass. She was b. 27 NOV 1694 in New York, daughter of John and Mary LOVETT. One source states that he was 57 years old when he came to North Carolina by way of New York in 1741, bringing his wife and six children. (Another authority reports that he came to N.C. in 1730). He settled about eight miles above Tarboro on the Tar River at the mouth of the Conecanarie Creek in Edgecombe County (a section that is now known to be in Halifax Co.). In this county it is of interest to note that there is a town named HOBGOOD and one known as Scotland Neck, N.C.

John was "a surveyor by profession, agent of the Earl of Granville. He was a man of means, with education, and talent; and had polished manners. He was a warden of the Angelican Church, sheriff of Edgecombe County, a member of the Colonial Assembly from 1746-52, member of the Committee of Coast Fortifications in 1748 and Treasurer of the North East Counties of the Province from 1752-57." (Ref. Historical Southern Families, Vol. 3 by John Bennett BODDIE).

In 1746 he was appointed as one of the commissioners to locate Fort Jackson at the mouth of the Cape Fear River. He was a Colonel in the Militia. His Last Will may be found in the records of Edgecombe Co., N.C. He names all his children except his daughter Elizabeth, as Executors according to court records of DEC 1758, however, court records of JUN 1758 gives only Egbert HAYWOOD as the Executor.

In 1761 he received 440 acres of land from the Earl of Granville and later 113 acres more. In 1775 he was a member of the Committee of Safety for the Halifax District and in opposition to the Crown. The following year (1776) he represented Edgecombe Co. in the state congress meeting at Halifax Co. in April and November. As a member of the last, he shared in the information of the first constitution for the new state. In DEC 1776 he was elected a member of the first Council of the State and three years later he represented his county in the House of Commons. The following quote was received among papers pertaining to the HAIGHWOOD COAT OF ARMS, writer of the paragraph is not known.

"In dealing with proper names it is well to remember that until the first English dictionary was published in 1752, there was no such thing as spelling, as we know it. Until that time, one spelled the name or the word as it suited him at the time. Thus, we find that Shakespear spelled his name in 16 different ways in legal documents. The Haighwood--Haigwood family took part in the War of the Roses, supporting the House of York. They supported the Marquis of Montrose in his rebellion in 1645 (1644) and they were strong partisans of Bonny Prince Charlie (Charles Edward Stewart) in his fight for the British throne. It was on this account that many of the Haigwoods had to flee to America, when the Bonny Prince lost the Battle of Culloden in 1746 (APR 16)." unquote. (See Section I on the HEYWOOD/ HAYWOOD Line).

Know Your Name

By JOHN DOWNING

Embr(e)y, Embree, Hembry

The surnames Embrey, Embra, Embr(e)y, Hembra, Hembry, Hembury and variations can be of both English and French origin.

In England, there are several locations in Dorsetshire variously called Hemborough, Hembery, Hembury Castle, Hembury Fort, etc. — all meaning "Hill fort." Emborough in Somersetshire means "smooth hill."

There is a location in the Department of Pas-de-Calais, France, called Embry which was named for a Roman called Amarius. there is also a French surname spelled Hemery which was derived from the Old German Helmric (protector-rule). Both of these could have contributed to the above surnames.

In England, Hemeri lived in London in 1182. John de (of) Hembury and John Hembure lived in Somersetshire in 1213-1327. John Embree and Mary Odaway were married

Hagood, Haigwood, Heywood

The English surnames Hagood, Haigwood, Haywood and Heywood are place names acquired from once having lived at places spelled Haywood in Herefordshire, Nottinghamshire, Shropshire or Lancashire and at places spelled Heywood in Wiltshire or Lancashire or at other minor places of similar spellings.

The meaning of the Haywoods and the Heywood Heywood in Wiltshire is from the Old English (Ge)hege (enclosure) and the Old English Wudu (a woods) in the sense of a large woods enclosed with some type of fence to confine game animals for the chase. The Heywood in Lancashire is from the Old English Hegh (high, lofty) in the sense of a wooded hill area.

Fairfield Co. being at least 16 and under 26 with his wife also being in the same age limits. There was another male in his household in the same age category and one male 10 and under 16 (b. 1805-1810); two males under 10 (b. after 1810) and one female 10 and under 16. He had one slave.)
